Differences in Common Joana Sabadell-Nieto, Marta Segarra, 2014-05-10

Differences in Common engages in the ongoing debate on community focusing on its philosophical and political aspects through a gendered perspective It explores the subversive and enriching potential of the concept of community as seen from the perspective of heterogeneity and distance and not from homogeneity and fused adhesions This theoretical reflection is in most of the essays included here based on the analysis of literary and filmic texts which due to their irreducible singularity teach us to think without being tied or needing to resort to commonplaces Philosophers such as Arendt Blanchot Foucault Agamben or Derrida have made seminal reflections on community often inspired by contemporary historical events and sometimes questioning the term itself More recently thinkers like Judith Butler Gayatri Spivak or Rada Ivekovic included in this volume are essays by all three have emphasized the gender bias in the debate also problematizing the notion of community Most of the essays gathered in Differences in Common conceive community not as the affirmation of several properties which would unite us to other similar individuals but as the expropriation of ourselves Esposito in an intimate diaspora Community does not fill the gap between subjects but places itself in this gap or void This conception stresses the subject's vulnerability a topic which is also central to this volume The body of community is thus opened by a wound Cixous which exposes us to the contagion of otherness The essays collected here reflect on different topics related to these issues such as gender and nation nationalism internationalism transnationalism nationalism's naturalization of citizenship and the exclusion of women from citizenship the violent consequences of a gendered nation on women's bodies gendering community preservation of difference within the community bodily vulnerability and new politics community and mourning community and the politics of memory fiction historical truth and fake documentary love relationality and community interpretive communities and virtual communities on the Web among others
