The Routledge Companion to Migration Literature Gigi Adair, Rebecca Fasselt, Carly McLaughlin, 2024-07-30 The Routledge Companion to Migration Literature offers a comprehensive survey of an increasingly important field It demonstrates the influence of the age of migration on literature and showcases the role of literature in shaping socio political debates and creating knowledge about the migratory trajectories lives and experiences that have shaped the post 1989 world The contributors examine a broad range of literary texts and critical approaches that cover the spectrum between voluntary and forced migration In doing so they reflect the shift in recent years from the author centric study of migrant writing to a more inclusive conception of migration literature The book contains sections on key terms and critical approaches in the field important genres of migration literature a range of forms and trajectories of migration with a particular focus on the global South and on migration literature's relevance in social contexts outside the academy Its range of scholarly voices on literature from different geographical contexts and in different languages is central to its call for and contribution to a pluriversal turn in literary migration studies in future scholarship This Companion will be of particular interest to scholars working on contemporary migration literature and it also offers an introduction to new students and scholars from other fields Chapter 15 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Studies in the Victorian and Neo-Victorian Novel Adrian Radu, 2024-02-29 Readers of the nineteenth century novel expected literature to be a form journalism and fictional history They wanted to read about easily identifiable situations with a chronological straightforward and easily discernible development of plot familiar backgrounds and credible characters About a hundred years later the Victorian novel became the great tradition omnipresent and reliable However today the age and the context are different and novels need more substance including such themes as memory race and empire sex and science spectrality and the heritage industry or key issues like gender sexuality and postmodernism All these elements are considered Neo Victorian which in spite of their novelty do point to a certain Victorian anchor This volume contains ten studies the substance of which is the analysis of novels that according to their date of publication are products of the Victorian and Neo Victorian periods as defined above The authors investigate and discuss Victorian roots and characteristics preserved or recycled Victorian themes Neo Victorian characters and motifs or any other characteristics that may label them as Victorian or Neo Victorian products
