

Introduction to The Color Purple

The Color Purple is a novel by Black American author Alice Walker. It was published in the United States in 1982 and won the National Book Award for Fiction and the Pulitzer Prize for Fiction in 1983. The Color Purple is told in epistolary format, with its protagonist, Celie, telling her story in a series of letters addressed to God. Celie describes the harrowing circumstances of her adolescence and follows her life's journey over several decades as she achieves greater independence, well-being, and wisdom.

Despite gaining substantial critical acclaim and several awards, the novel also caused controversy and was censored due to its sexual and violent content. It was later adapted into a film by Steven Spielberg in 1985 and into a Broadway musical in 2005. The Color Purple is considered by many a touchstone of Black American literature.
