State Space World Selected Essays:

State, Space, World Henri Lefebvre, 2009 Making the political aspect of Lefebvre's work available in English for the first time this book contains essays on philosophy political theory state formation spatial planning and globalization as well as provocative reflections on the possibilities and limits of grassroots democracy under advanced capitalism Space, Urban Politics, and Everyday Life Tilman Schwarze, 2023-11-18 This Book develops a novel and innovative methodological framework for operationalising Henri Lefebvre's work for empirical research on the U S city Building on ethnographic research on Chicago's South Side Tilman Schwarze explores the current situation of urbanisation and urban life in the U S city through a critical reading and application of Lefebvre's writings on space everyday life the urban the state and difference Focusing on territorial stigmatisation public housing transformation and urban redevelopment this book makes an important contribution to critical urban scholarship foregrounding the relevance and applicability of Henri Lefebvre's work for geographical and sociological research on urban politics and everyday life Henri Lefebvre and Education Sue Middleton, 2013-11-07 During his lifetime Henri Lefebvre 1901-1991 was renowned in France as a philosopher sociologist and activist Although he published more than 70 books few were available in English until The Production of Space was translated in 1991 While this work often associated with geography has influenced educational theory's spatial turn educationalists have yet to consider Lefebvre's work more broadly This book engages in an educational reading of the selection of Lefebvre's work that is available in English translation After introducing Lefebvre's life and works the book experiments with his concepts and methods in a series of five spatial histories of educational theories In addition to The Production of Space these studies develop themes from Lefebvre's other translated works Rhythmanalysis The Explosion the three volumes of Critique of Everyday Life and a range of his writings on cities Marxism technology and the bureaucratic state In the course of these inquiries Lefebvre's own passionate interest in education is uncovered his critiques of bureaucratised schooling and universities the analytic concepts he devised to study educational phenomena and his educational methods Throughout the book Middleton demonstrates how Lefebvre's conceptual and methodological tools can enhance the understanding of the spatiotemporal location of educational philosophy and theory Bridging disciplinary divides it will be key reading for researchers and academics studying the philosophy sociology and history of education as well as those working in fields beyond education including geography history cultural studies and sociology Henri Lefebvre and the Theory of the Production of Space Christian Schmid, 2022-11-29 Shortlisted for the Deutscher Memorial Prize 2023 This book presents an encompassing detailed and thorough overview and reconstruction of Lefebvre's theory of space and of the urban Henri Lefebvre belongs to the generation of the great French intellectuals and philosophers together with his contemporaries Michel Foucault and Jean Paul Sartre His theory has experienced a remarkable revival over the last two decades and is discussed and applied today in many disciplines in humanities and social sciences particularly in urban studies geography urban sociology urban anthropology architecture and planning Lefebvre together with David Harvey is one of the leading and most read theoreticians in these fields This book explains in an accessible way the theoretical and epistemological context of this work in French philosophy and in the German dialectic Hegel Marx and Nietzsche and reconstructs in detail the historical development of its different elements It also gives an overview on the receptions of Lefebvre and discusses a wide range of applications of this theory in many research fields such as urban and regional development urbanization urbanity social space and everyday life Spaces of Capital/Spaces of Resistance Chris Hesketh,2017-12-15 Based on original fieldwork in Chiapas and Oaxaca Mexico this book offers a bridge between geography and historical sociology Chris Hesketh examines the production of space within the global political economy Drawing on multiple disciplines Hesketh s discussion of state formation in Mexico takes us beyond the national level to explore the interplay between global regional national and sub national articulations of power These are linked through the novel deployment of Antonio Gramsci s concept of passive revolution understood as the state led institution or expansion of capitalism that prevents the meaningful participation of the subaltern classes Furthermore the author brings attention to the conflicts involved in the production of space placing particular emphasis on indigenous communities and movements and their creation of counterspaces of resistance Hesketh argues that indigenous movements are now the leading social force of popular mobilization in Latin America The author reveals how the wider global context of uneven and combined development frames these specific indigenous struggles and he explores the scales at which they must now seek to articulate themselves

Henri Lefebvre Chris Adrian Butler,2012 Henri Lefebvre Spatial Politics Everyday Life and the Right to the City provides the first detailed analysis of the relevance and importance of the social theory of Henri Lefebvre for the study of law and the administrative state Place, Space and Hermeneutics Bruce B. Janz,2017-03-29 This book analyzes the hermeneutics of place raising questions about central issues such as textuality dialogue and play It discusses the central figures in the development of hermeneutics and place and surveys disciplines and areas in which a hermeneutic approach to place has been fruitful It covers the range of philosophical hermeneutic theory both within philosophy itself as well as from other disciplines In doing so the volume reflects the state of theorization on these issues and also looks forward to the implications and opportunities that exist Philosophical hermeneutics has fundamentally altered philosophy s approach to place Issues such as how we dwell in place how place is imagined created preserved and lost and how philosophy itself exists in place have become central While there is much research applying hermeneutics to place there is little which both reflects on that heritage and critically analyzes a hermeneutic approach to place This book fills that void by offering a sustained analysis of the central elements major figures and disciplinary applications of hermeneutics and place New Urban Spaces Neil Brenner,2019 The urban condition is today being radically transformed Urban restructuring is accelerating new urban spaces are being consolidated and new forms of urbanization are crystallizing In New Urban Spaces Neil Brenner argues that understanding these mutations of urban life requires not only concrete research but new theories of urbanization To this end Brenner proposes an approach that breaks with inherited conceptions of the urban as a bounded settlement unit the city or the metropolis and explores the multiscalar constitution and periodic rescaling of the capitalist urban fabric Drawing on critical geopolitical economy and spatialized approaches to state theory Brenner offers a paradigmatic account of how rescaling processes are transforming inherited formations of urban space and their variegated consequences for emergent patterns and pathways of urbanization The book also advances an understanding of critical urban theory as radically revisable key urban concepts must be continually reinvented in relation to the relentlessly mutating worlds of urbanization they aspire to illuminate

Human Rights and Constituent Power Ilan Wall, 2013-03 Engaging the current political and jurisprudential thought on constituent power with a radical political re thinking of human rights Ilan Rua Wall develops the idea that human rights must be considered as a non metaphysical process of right ing
