Instagram Club Framework:

Building Power, Safety, and Trust in Virtual Communities Darwish, Dina, 2024-09-27 Virtual communities are a new frontier in the digital landscape While these spaces are only in their infancy it will not be long before they become a part of much of the population s daily life Before that becomes the case it is important that we instill guidelines and parameters to ensure that those interacting with these digital spaces feel safe within them and are able to use them to their fullest capacity Building Power Safety and Trust in Virtual Communities examines how online groups help people learn and change the way they think In this book different people with different academic backgrounds methods and personal experience with virtual groups look at this question Case studies are included to help exemplify these findings Together these chapters discuss how virtual communities are built in ways that thinkers researchers and practitioners can understand

The Making of "Jew Clubs" Pavel Brunssen, 2025-09-02 Why do non Jewish football fans chant Yid Army or wave Super Jews banners especially in support of clubs that are not Jewish The Making of Jew Clubs explores how four major European football clubs FC Bayern Munich FK Austria Vienna Ajax Amsterdam and Tottenham Hotspur came to be seen as Jew Clubs even though they have never officially identified as Jewish In this transnational study Pavel Brunssen traces how both Jewish and non Jewish actors perform Jewishness antisemitism and philosemitism within European football cultures over the 20th and 21st centuries Drawing on a wide array of primary sources from fan chants and matchday rituals to media portrayals and club histories the book reveals how football stadiums have become unexpected stages for negotiating memory identity and historical trauma Offering a new approach to Holocaust memory sports history and Jewish studies The Making of Jew Clubs shows how football cultures reflect and reshape Europe s conflicted relationship with its Jewish past

Innovative Mobile and Internet Services in Ubiquitous Computing Leonard Barolli, Fatos Xhafa, Omar K. Hussain, 2019-06-18 This book highlights the latest research findings methods and techniques as well as challenges and solutions related to Ubiquitous and Pervasive Computing UPC In this regard it employs both theoretical and practical perspectives and places special emphasis on innovative mobile and internet services With the proliferation of wireless technologies and electronic devices there is a rapidly growing interest in Ubiquitous and Pervasive Computing UPC UPC makes it possible to create a human oriented computing environment in which computer chips are embedded in everyday objects and interact with the physical world Through UPC people can remain online even while underway thus enjoying nearly permanent access to their preferred services Though it has a great potential to revolutionize our lives UPC also poses a number of new research challenges

Building an Entrepreneurial Organisation Simon Mosey, Hannah

Noke, Paul Kirkham, 2017-04-21 Entrepreneurship is often focused on understanding new ventures but the entrepreneurial flame is required in growing organisations too This textbook examines how organisations can become more entrepreneurial to achieve sustainable growth The authors show how entrepreneurship can be used to address crisis points of growth within small firms and to overcome the limitations of stagnation within large firms By integrating entrepreneurship and innovation management the book presents a framework to diagnose entrepreneurial behaviour within existing firms Drawing upon research and reflecting practice across a range of industries from football through Silicon Valley to the retail sector it includes insights from leading practitioners The authors build an understanding of entrepreneurship in context to provide diagnostic tools to help organisations make entrepreneurship central to their culture This unique text is therefore useful reading for business students from advanced undergraduate to executive education

Brand Machines, Sensory Media and Calculative Culture Sven Brodmerkel, Nicholas Carah, 2016-10-27 This study argues that the defining feature of contemporary advertising is the interconnectedness between consumer participation and calculative media platforms It critically investigates how audience participation unfolds in an algorithmic media infrastructure in which brands develop media devices to codify process and modulate human capacities and actions With the shift from a broadcast to an interactive media system advertisers have reinvented themselves as the strategic interface between computational media systems and the lived experience and living bodies of consumers Where once advertising relied predominantly on symbolic appeals to affect consumers it now centres on the use of computational devices that codify monitor analyse and control their behaviours Advertisers have worked to stimulate and harness consumer participation for several generations Consumers undertook the productive work of making brands a part of their cultural identities and practices With the emergence of a computational mode of advertising consumer participation extends beyond the expressive activity of creating and circulating meaning It now involves making the lived experience and the living body available to the experimental capacities of media platforms and devices In this mode of advertising brands become techno cultural processes that integrate calculative and cultural functions Brand Machines Sensory Media and Calculative Culture conceptualises and theorises these significant changes in advertising It takes consumer participation and its interconnectedness with calculative media platforms as the fundamental aspect of contemporary advertising and critically investigates how advertising consumer participation and technology are interrelated in creating and facilitating lived experiences that create value for brands
