Youth Digital Health and Online

Platforms Martyna Gliniecka, 2024-12-27 Youth Digital Health and Online Platforms focuses on young people's use of the digital platform Reddit for health. Drawing upon dialogism theory, the book explores how young people produce a youth-led discourse of youth digital health, different from the adult-led framing represented in youth digital health research policy and service delivery. Peer-led discussions online remain one of the controversial forms of youth digital health, associated with negative peer influence or casual teenage talk. This book argues that online peer-led dialogues support young people's agency in health and that young people can benefit from dealing with health issues with peers. The work is based on the digital ethnography of teenagers' subreddits on Reddit and utilises a theoretical framework of dialogism, a linguistic-based theory originated by an early 20th-century Russian philosopher Mikhail Bakhtin. The book introduces the concept of dialogical youth-led youth digital health discourse formed in the peer-led space of Reddit. This youth-led discourse celebrates equality and diversity amongst people, meanings and opinions. It is constructed around three relational elements: socio-material affordances, creative practices, and a plurality of youth voices. Reddit's pseudonymous, anti-authoritarian and egalitarian nature supports the emergence of this youth-led discourse. The book can interest scholars and lecturers in childhood and youth studies, Internet studies, and youth health studies. Professionals such as policymakers, service designers, deliverers, online safety educators, and global youth and health agencies can use evidence-based insights in their work with young people.

Mobile and Social Media Journalism Anthony Adornato, 2025-12-15 Now in its third edition, Mobile and Social Media Journalism continues to be an essential resource for those learning about how journalists and news organizations use mobile and social media to gather news, distribute content, and engage with audiences. Merging theory and practice, this textbook includes checklists and practical activities in every chapter, enabling readers to immediately build the mobile and social media skills that today's journalists need and which news organizations expect. This third edition retains a focus on journalism's core values, such as authentication, verification, and credibility, while guiding readers on how to apply them to digital media activities. The book offers an in-depth discussion of the audience's active role in producing content, how mobile devices and social media have changed the way audiences consume news, and what these changes mean for journalists. Updated to address the latest trends in multimedia journalism, this edition includes new material on the rise of artificial intelligence, AI, increased polarization of media, and shifting algorithms on social platforms. Increased attention is paid to visual content for social storytelling, as well as how journalists can look after their mental health when exposed to online harassment and cognitive overload. This book is essential reading for journalism students as well as media professionals seeking to update their skills. An online accompaniment to this book can be found at www.mobileandsocialmediajournalism.com, providing extra resources for students and lecturers, including lecture slides, video tutorials, industry news, and sample assignments.

The Circle of the Snake Grafton Tanner, 2020-12-11 Shocked by 9 11 the Great Recession digital anxiety and ecological collapse the West suffers from nostalgia People everywhere yearn for a utopian version of the past that never existed Desperate for relief many long to escape from the present Some will stop at nothing to achieve it In his essential new book Grafton Tanner author of Babbling Corpse Vaporwave and the Commodification of Ghosts argues that our nostalgia today is partly a consequence of the attention economy At a time when historical literacy is crucial and old prejudices are percolating into the present Big Tech s predictive algorithms are locking us into nostalgic feedback loops The result is a precarious society with its gaze fixed on the good old days Spanning from the ancient Sophists to Black Mirror The Circle of the Snake is at once a reckoning with the myth of digital utopia and an incisive analysis of nostalgia as a weapon to spread fascism

You Should Quit Reddit Jacob Desforges,2023-02-21 In recent years countless books articles and documentaries have addressed the negative effects that social media platforms have wrought on their users and society However these former works are incomplete nearly no attention has been paid to Reddit one of the most popular websites in the world Reddit is certainly unique among social platforms but its potential for addiction and darker side of nefarious activity should absolutely not be understated Additionally nearly no actionable advice has been provided to users of these platforms The audience is told that these websites and apps are harming their mental health wasting their time and that they are addictive which would logically make the task of quitting rather difficult but then provided zero guidance on how to disconnect from them Over 200 000 users gather on Reddit s r NoSurf community to discuss reducing their internet use the forum is filled with reports of people who want to quit Reddit but find themselves psychologically compelled to return to the site over and over For moderate to heavy users of these platforms quitting is clearly not so simple You Should Quit Reddit is a paradigm shift in the genre Jacob Desforges was a Reddit user of over a decade and a self admitted Reddit addict who spent on average around three hours daily on the site Not only is this the first book investigating Reddit s flaws as a platform but it is also written from the perspective of someone who experienced firsthand the struggle that comes with quitting these addictive platforms This book therefore also provides readers with the practical advice tools and techniques needed to shatter the cycle of digital addiction enabling them to quit visiting Reddit and other time wasting websites for good so they can effectively reclaim their time to use in a more intentional manner
