Sociology Mysoclab Student Access Code Card James M. Henslin, 2010-01-14 Death and Events Ian R

Lamond, Ruth Dowson, 2021-11-11 This unique volume examines death from a socio cultural events perspective Drawing on the empirical and conceptual work produced by an international body of researchers it is the first publication to look at death dying memorialization and their mediation from an events orientation By placing the contribution of these scholars together this book provides a unique opportunity to instigate an international critical discussion around the connectivities associated with death and events Chapters consider connections to death and events on many levels including individual local communally based construals of the event landscape the relationship between death and events into larger socio cultural frames of reference Chapteres also consider how death and events are manifest through diverse platforms of mediation with a discussion of the media presentation of end of life events and the articulation of death online Case studies from a wide ranging selection of countries from Moscow to Bangladesh to Cambodia are examined throughout This will be of great interest to upper level students and researchers in event studies as well as a variety of other disciplines such as sociology and cultural studies

The Main Idea Myrna Bigman Skidell, Sidney Graves Becker, 2005 This highly successful user friendly text helps readers learn strategic behaviors that empower them to succeed in their reading The Main Idea emphasizes reading to learn Readers develop an increasingly complex understanding of the reading process through incremental strategies and game plans Enlightening reading selections vary in topics and lengths within each chapter and a casebook of longer readings all based on the theme of intergenerational relationships expose readers to worldwide issues to integrate chapter concepts with real world material In addition a wealth of pedagogical features such as discipline specific vocabulary instruction individual and collaborative activities critical thinking and reading strategies and a complete chapter on reading college textbooks give the developmental reader the necessary tools to succeed For those interested in improving basic reading skills

Sociology James M. Henslin, 2009-09-24 How Do They Know That? Michael V.

Angrosino, 2010-02-22 In relatively few pages Michael Angrosino delivers a high impact step by step guide to the process of social research While stressing qualitative methods he also discusses the processes and attributes of quantitative methods offering a coherent view of an eight phased research process He shows how the phases are linked how they lead logically from one to the other and how the end result can have broad implications Angrosinos description of conducting research for one of his own projects adds a real world perspective Thus students about to embark on their first independent research project or individuals with some familiarity and experience are equipped with an accessible multidisciplinary formula dovetailed with clear illustrations of how each step works Each chapter ends with a highly selective list of suggested readings for further exploration as well as discussion questions designed to apply each step in the process to a research project developed by the reader
