The Adventures Of Nicholas:

The Adventures of Nicholas Edward Stuchlik,1971 The Life and Adventures of Nicholas Nickleby Charles Dickens,2024-01-30 There once lived in a sequestered part of the county of Devonshire one Mr Godfrey Nickleby a worthy gentleman who taking it into his head rather late in life that he must get married and not being young enough or rich enough to aspire to the hand of a lady of fortune had wedded an old flame out of mere attachment who in her turn had taken him for the same reason Thus two people who cannot afford to play cards for money sometimes sit down to a quiet game for love Some ill conditioned persons who sneer at the life matrimonial may perhaps suggest in this place that the good couple would be better likened to two principals in a sparring match who when fortune is low and backers scarce will chivalrously set to for the mere pleasure of the buffeting and in one respect indeed this comparison would hold good for as the adventurous pair of the Fives Court will afterwards send round a hat and trust to the bounty of the lookers on for the means of regaling themselves so Mr Godfrey Nickleby and HIS partner the honeymoon being over looked out wistfully into the world relying in no inconsiderable degree upon chance for the improvement of their means Mr Nickleby s income at the period of his marriage fluctuated between sixty and eighty pounds PER ANNUM There are people enough in the world Heaven knows and even in London where Mr Nickleby dwelt in those days but few complaints prevail of the population being scanty It is extraordinary how long a man may look among the crowd without discovering the face of a friend but it is no less true Mr Nickleby looked and looked till his eyes became sore as his heart but no friend appeared and when growing tired of the search he turned his eyes homeward he saw very little there to relieve his weary vision A painter who has gazed too long upon some glaring colour refreshes his dazzled sight by looking upon a darker and more sombre tint but everything that met Mr Nickleby s gaze wore so black and gloomy a hue that he would have been beyond description refreshed by the very reverse of the contrast At length after five years when Mrs Nickleby had presented her husband with a couple of sons and that embarrassed gentleman impressed with the necessity of making some provision for his family was seriously revolving in his mind a little commercial speculation of insuring his life next quarter day and then falling from the top of the Monument by accident there came one morning by the general post a black bordered letter to inform him how his uncle Mr Ralph Nickleby was dead and had left him the bulk of his little property amounting in all to five thousand pounds sterling The Adventures of Nicholas Helen Siiteri,2004-11 On a frozen winter s night in a remote northern fishing village a young boy named Nicholas is orphaned when his father is drowned at sea His mother braves the raging storm to get medical help for Kati the younger sister and leaves Nicholas to sit by her bedside When the villagers arrive at the cottage in morning he learns that Kati has died of a fever and his mother is killed by a falling tree as she passes through the forest The fishermen s wives gather to discuss how Nicholas will be cared for and decide that if each family takes him in for one year he will reach an age to care for himself So it is that Nicholas moves in with his first family for a year on Christmas Eve He hides in a closet and cries himself to sleep The next day Christmas is sorrowful for Nicholas but brightened by the company of the family's children two girls and especially Otto who becomes Nicholas' life long friend Nicholas has learned to carve by watching his father repair fishing gear and as his father's knife is his only inherited possession he uses it to repair Otto's broken Christmas toy When a year passes and it's time for Nicholas to move on to another family he carves a doll and a chair for the girls and a toy sleigh with beautiful carved runners for Otto The children are so pleased with the toys that Nicholas promises Next year I'll know how to make better toys and I'll make you some next Christmas too That is how every home where Nicholas the wandering orphan stayed he left gifts for each child and each child in every family came to expect a Christmas gift from Nicholas The story proceeds to weave an incentive for hanging the first Christmas stocking for designing the first red suit for replacing his old horse with reindeer for resorting to go down the chimney to leave gifts for the occasion of the first Christmas tree and other favorite legends and traditions surrounding Christmas
