You Should Quit Reddit Jacob Desforges, 2023-02-21 In recent years countless books articles and documentaries have addressed the negative effects that social media platforms have wrought on their users and society However these former works are incomplete nearly no attention has been paid to Reddit one of the most popular websites in the world Reddit is certainly unique among social platforms but its potential for addiction and darker side of nefarious activity should absolutely not be understated Additionally nearly no actionable advice has been provided to users of these platforms The audience is told that these websites and apps are harming their mental health wasting their time and that they are addictive which would logically make the task of quitting rather difficult but then provided zero guidance on how to disconnect from them Over 200 000 users gather on Reddit's r/NoSurf community to discuss reducing their internet use the forum is filled with reports of people who want to quit Reddit but find themselves psychologically compelled to return to the site over and over For moderate to heavy users of these platforms quitting is clearly not so simple You Should Quit Reddit is a paradigm shift in the genre Jacob Desforges was a Reddit user of over a decade and a self admitted Reddit addict who spent on average around three hours daily on the site Not only is this the first book investigating Reddit's flaws as a platform but it is also written from the perspective of someone who experienced firsthand the struggle that comes with quitting these addictive platforms This book therefore also provides readers with the practical advice tools and techniques needed to shatter the cycle of digital addiction enabling them to quit visiting Reddit and other time wasting websites for good so they can effectively reclaim their time to use in a more intentional manner

Immunotherapies Against Infectious Diseases Saba Tufail, Mohammad Asif Sherwani, Najmul Islam, 2024-11-08 Infectious diseases have jeopardized human health significantly as evidenced by the ongoing Covid 19 pandemic In recent years the world has witnessed outbreaks of many emerging and re emerging infections such as SARS most recent by SARS CoV 2 Ebola Zika MERS dengue which in addition to taking millions of lives have posed major health issues in recovered individuals Moreover several infectious agents like hepatitis B and C viruses human papillomavirus human immunodeficiency virus type 1 Epstein Barr virus human T cell leukemia lymphoma virus type 1 Kaposi sarcoma associated herpesvirus Helicobacter pylori and Streptococcus bovis have been found to cause different types of cancers since the action mechanism of these agents sometimes transforms an infected cell into a cancer cell As these infections are difficult to treat with available drugs owing to their lower efficacy toxicity and emergence of drug resistance immunotherapy is viewed as a viable option Immunotherapy is manipulating body's defense mechanism to treat manage disease Threats of emerging and reemerging infectious diseases in addition to dangers of developing cancer due to cancer causing infectious agents combined with lack of effective treatment modalities has shifted focus of scientific community to immunotherapy Advancements in immunotherapies comprising vaccines monoclonal antibodies cytokines T cells and checkpoint inhibitors have shown immense promise in combating not only cancer but infectious diseases as well Through this

Kourkoulou,Anastasia-Olga (Olnancy) Tzirides,Bill Cope,Mary Kalantzis,2024-09-27 Trust and Inclusion in AI Mediated Education Where Human Learning Meets Learning Machines is a resource for researchers and practitioners in a field where the mainstreaming of AI technologies and their increased capacities for deception have produced confusion and fear Identifying theoretical frameworks and practices in teaching with and training trustworthy and inclusive AI technology sheds light on the new challenges and opportunities for learning machines and their intersections with human learning The book looks into the history of developing AI technology and algorithms It offers theoretical models for best practices interpretation and evaluation taking into account especially the needs of contemporary learners and their advanced literacies in cyber social environments The book presents in depth analyses of recent and ongoing applications of state of the art AI technologies in learning environments and classrooms assessments ending with an interview with George Ritzer on McDonaldization and Artificial Intelligence Gaming Democracy Adrienne L. Massanari,2024-10-29 How play and gaming culture have mainstreamed far right ideology through social media platforms From Gamergate to the ongoing Big Lie the far right has gone mainstream In Gaming Democracy Adrienne Massanari tracks the flames of toxicity found in the far right and alt right movements as they increasingly take up oxygen in American and global society In this pathbreaking contribution to the fields of internet studies game studies and gender studies Massanari argues that Silicon Valley's emphasis on meritocracy and free speech absolutism has driven this rightward slide These ideologies have been coded into social media spaces that implicitly silence marginalized communities and subject them to rampant abuse by groups that have learned to game the ecology of platforms algorithms and attention economies While populist movements are not new phenomena such as QAnon parental rights activism and COVID denialism are uniquely of the internet with supporters demonstrating both technical acumen and an ability to use memes and play as a way of both building community and fomenting dissent Massanari explores the ways that the far right uses memetic humor and geek masculinity as tools both to create a sense of community within these leaderless groups and to obfuscate their intentions Using the lens of play and game studies as well as the concept of metagaming Gaming Democracy is a novel contribution to our understanding of online platforms and far right political activism
