International Handbook of Educational Leadership and Administration Kenneth A. Leithwood,Judith Chapman,P. Corson,P. Hallinger,Ann Hart,2012-12-06 EDITORS This introduction to the International Handbook of Educational Leadership and Administration describes some of the motivation for developing the book and several assumptions on which is based much of the work represented in its 31 chapters A synopsis of the contents of those chapters is also provided SOME KEY ASSUMPTIONS It is sometimes suggested that the search for an adequate understanding of leadership is doomed to fail After all there is little evidence of agreement about the concept in spite of prodigious efforts dating back hundreds if not thousands of years Such a view is captured for example in Bennis observation that Of all the hazy and confounding areas in social psychology leadership theory undoubtedly contends for top nomination Probably more has been written and less is known about leadership than any other topic in the behavioural sciences 1959 page 259 We do not find this state of affairs discouraging nor entirely accurate and of course it did not prevent Bennis from proceeding either One reason for our desire to continue in the face of such discouraging words is that a great deal of leadership research aspires to develop a general theory a theory which applies to all or most domains of organized human activity This aspiration inevitably produces decontextualized and therefore abstract categories of practice Howard Gardner s 1995 depiction of leadership as story telling is a case in point Handbook on Leadership in Education Philip A. Woods,Amanda Roberts,Meng Tian,Howard Youngs,2023-11-03 This comprehensive Handbook explores how to best understand develop and practise educational leadership in an era of significant disruption to education Contributors evaluate the latest developments in leadership in education and provide novel insights into key conceptual and methodological issues
