

How do the perspectives of UK university students, as expressed on Reddit, evolve over time?

Examining key themes and sentiment trends from r/UKUni posts (2014-2023) to understand the changing perspectives and emotional dynamics of UK university students.

BACKGROUND	TOPIC ANALYSIS	SENTIMENT ANALYSIS	TOPIC DATA	INTERPRETATION
------------	----------------	--------------------	------------	----------------

Interpretation, Limitations and Future Direction

The topic frequency graph provides an overview of the most prevalent themes discussed by UK university students on Reddit over time. Notably, while student count shows an increasing trend for all topics as the subreddit grows, it is particularly for Topic 4 (Mental Health), becoming the most shared, as to identify the relative prevalence of each topic over time. Among the top topics, we find a mix of academic concerns (e.g., accommodation, university applications), social aspects (e.g., finding friends, loneliness), and personal well-being (e.g., mental health, finance). First, the prevalence of topics such as jobs, university choice and applications, accommodation and finance highlight the practical challenges that students face in their university journey. Interestingly, students use such social media platforms as an avenue of seeking help and advice from other UK university students who have experienced similar concerns. These discussions not only provide valuable peer-to-peer support but also offer insights into the common struggles and decision-making processes of students.

Secondly, the prevalence of topics such as mental health and loneliness (Topic 4) is particularly concerning. This suggests that UK university students are facing significant challenges in their mental health and social well-being. The prevalence of these topics also indicates that students are seeking support and advice from their peers, which is a positive sign of a supportive community.
