

300 creative writing prompts for kids

Imagine a giant box is delivered to your front doorstep with your name on it. What's inside and what happens when you open it?

Write a short story about what it might be like if you woke up one morning with a mermaid tail.

Write about what would it be like if you had an alligator as a pet.

If you were in charge of the whole world, what would you do to make the world a happier place?

Imagine that dogs take over the world. What do they make the humans do?

Write about 3 places you would like to travel someday. What do these three places have in common?

Write a poem that starts with the word "if".

How do you feel when someone takes something of yours without asking? What is a good way to deal with it when that happens?

Imagine you walk out your front door one morning and it is raining popcorn! What do you do?

Academic Discipline Dianne Donnelly, 2011-11-23 This book advances creative writing studies as a developing field of inquiry scholarship and research. It discusses the practice of creative writing studies, the establishment of a body of professional knowledge, and the goals and future direction of the discipline within the academy. This book also traces the development of creative writing studies, noting that as the new discipline matures, it refers to evidence of its own research methodology and collective data and locates its authority in its own scholarship. Creative writing studies will bring even more meaning to the academy, its profession, and its student body.

A Two-way Street Maryellen Hains, 1982 Reading, Writing, and Gender Gail Lynn Goldberg, Barbara Roswell, 2013-09-13 Like an increasing number of educators, you recognize that girls and boys approach reading and writing differently and that boys are lagging behind girls in many assessments of literacy learning. This book does more than describe and explain these differences. It builds on the authors' state-of-the-art research to offer instructional strategies and classroom activities to help both girls and boys develop as readers and writers. This book is for classroom teachers in grades 3-8 as well as for reading specialists, instructional leaders, and other educators. It provides detailed descriptions of instructional activities accompanied by reproducible tools and materials, illustrative examples of student work, concise summaries of state-of-the-art research, and ideas for action research projects. The strategies and activities in this book have all been classroom tested with diverse student populations.
