A Different Way Roger Payne, 2015-03-27 There is an urgent need for more debate and discussion in our churches because the integrity and credibility of our faith is at risk Our integrity is at risk because it is not clear that we understand what it is that we profess Our credibility is at risk because we seem unable to communicate it We need to engage more actively at the intellectual level and to be willing to examine the fundamentals of our faith more critically And such discussion must start with a human rather than a divine perspective It is as human beings that we are embodied as persons it is as human beings that we engage with the world around us and it is as human beings that we form relationships with the rest of the created order And it is as a human being that that which we understand as God was embodied in the form of Jesus of Nazareth thereby placing humanity at the pinnacle of creation and giving humanity the responsibility for the stewardship of the created order institutional constraints of its ecological environment The theoretical framework for the contextual biblical reading is guided by the Samoan proverb seu le manu ae taga i ile galu catch the bird and watch the wave symbolizing responsibility and restraint in biblical interpretation At the end of the contextual biblical reading a new way of reading Luke is presented and three broad propositions are suggested for further consideration The main argument of this deep contextual reading of the Lukan passage is that the rich ruler offers a different form of following which is possible by living responsibly with wealth you can easily pinpoint that target When peering through the scope of your financial future the strategy is the same The two dimensions are God s Wealth vertical and God s Wisdom horizontal Once you have these two crosshairs in focus and zeroed in you can aim right at the center of your target and hit it consistently If you want to pinpoint your financial destiny you need to zero in on your target not someone else s mark The simple tool needed for pinpoint accuracy is the crosshairs and one of the most critical steps is knowing where you are aiming The blessings come where the two lines meet Get ready to manage money according to the Word of God and live a prosperous life
