The Moon's Dominion Gavriel Reisner, 1981 Posits a causal relationship between two themes in Lawrence's fiction usually thought to be unrelated the dominance of women and the conflict between the tale and the teller The connection is revealed in the course of a systematic analysis of the tale teller division in Lawrence's earlier novels The First Mystery Novel MEGAPACK ®: 4 Great Mystery Novels Howard Mason, Marco Page, Harry Stephen Keeler, Elisabeth Sanxay Holding, 2015-09-03 The First Mystery Novel MEGAPACK™ presents four classic mysteries by top crime writers Here are The Red Bishop by Howard Mason A wild chase through Europe a castle on the Rhine some very fancy corpses a racing columnist who suddenly finds himself a Peer of the Realm These are the unlikely ingredients that make this book at once hair raising and light hearted Reclining Figure by Marco Page Lucas Edgerton arbitrary and capricious eccentric brings in Ellis Blaise a young New York art dealer to sell some of his art collection for tax purposes Thefts from the collection the sensational forgery of a priceless Renoir and the puzzling murder of Lucas's son force Blaise into a perilous investigation The Case of the 16 Beans by Harry Stephen Keeler Why did old Balhatchet Barkstone on dying leave his nephew 16 beans And why did Boyce Barkstone his heir hold on to the beans Why did Hu Fong a Chinese detective come to the conclusion that a poverty stricken hermit was murdered for an article of great value and what might that article be These are only a few of the seemingly insoluble riddles which Keeler answers in his own inimitable manner The Girl Who Had to Die by By Elisabeth Sanxay Holding 19 year old Jocelyn is convinced she's going to be murdered and accuses John Killian a young man she met on a cruise ship of throwing her overboard But there are a lot of people who seem to hate Jocelyn and Killian starts to wonder if he'll be the next victim instead If you enjoy this ebook don't forget to search your favorite ebook store for Wildside Press Megapack to see more of the 250 volumes in this series covering adventure historical fiction mysteries westerns ghost stories science fiction and much much more The Graphic Novel Jan Baetens, 2001 The essays collected in this volume were first presented at the international and interdisciplinary conference on the Graphic Novel hosted by the Institute for Cultural Studies University of Leuven in 2000 The issues discussed by the conference are twofold Firstly that of trauma representation an issue escaping by definition from any imaginable specific field Secondly that of a wide range of topics concerning the concept of visual narrative an issue which can only be studied by comparing as many media and practices as possible The essays of this volume are grouped here in two major parts their focus depending on either a more general topic or on a very specific graphic author The first part of the book Violence and trauma in the Graphic Novel opens with a certain number of reflections on the representation of violence in literary and visual graphic novels and continues with a whole set of close readings of graphic novels by Art Spiegelman Maus I and II and Jacques Tardi whose masterwork C'est la guerre des tranchées is still waiting for its complete English translation The second part of the book presents in the first place a survey of the current graphic novel production and insists sharply on the great diversity of the range in the various continental traditions for instance underground comix and feminist comics high art graphic novels critical superheroes fiction whose separation is nowadays increasingly difficult to maintain It continues and ends with a set of theoretical interventions where not only the reciprocal influences of national and international traditions but also those between genres and media are strongly forwarded the emphasis being here mainly on problems concerning ways of looking and positions of spectatorship

Temporalities in/of Crises in Anglophone Literatures Sibylle Baumbach, Birgit Neumann, 2023-08-08 Literary works play a crucial role in modelling and conceptualising temporalities This becomes particularly apparent in times of crises which put conventionalised temporal patterns and routines under pressure During crises past present and future appear to collapse into each other and give way to temporal disjunction and rupture Offering pluralised and context sensitive approaches to temporalities in and of crises this volume explores how literature's engagement with crises suggests both the need for and possibility of rethinking time The volume is committed to examining the affordances of specific genres and their potential in pointing beyond temporalities of crises to facilitate a sense of futurity Individual essays are grounded in recent theories of temporality and literary form which are related to novel advancements in ecocriticism queer studies affect theory and postcolonial studies The chapters cover a broad range of examples from different literary genres to reveal the knowledge of literature about temporalities in and of crises
