Children Bedtime Story Readers Choice:

Children's Reading Choices Martin Coles, Christine Hall, 2002-01-04 Children's Reading Choices discusses the reading habits of children aged between 10 and 14. The book reports the findings of the Children's Reading Choices project conducted by the authors from the University of Nottingham and the largest national survey of children's reading choices since the 1970s. The book includes reports and discussion on girls and boys reading preferences and the differences between their reading habits, the place of series books, teenage magazines and comics in children's reading, the most popular authors and titles at different ages, purchasing habits and library use.

Living Literacy at Home Margaret Mary Policastro, 2016-03-04 Reading to children at home is a joyful and celebratory time for parents and children alike. Both relish in the story and the time spent together. Early exposure to texts provides other benefits as well because it prepares children for school and builds a love of reading. Living Literacy at Home provides tips and strategies to help parents build those connections. Included is a snapshot of what literacy looks like in today's classroom and support on how to make that home to school connection, how to build a home library and develop a reading routine and how to make every day a literacy rich day. Easy to use forms and a glossary of literacy terms round out this resource. Although the book is intended for parents of children in kindergarten through grade 8, the routines and suggestions can be easily adapted for any grade level.
