Framework Alien Invasion Fiction:

Fictions at Work Mary M. Talbot, 2014-09-19 In this book Mary Talbot shows how fiction works in the constitution and reproduction of social life She discusses both high and low fiction combining discussion of social context with language analysis Examples are taken from children's tales romance horror and science in her language analysis Speculative & Science Fiction Ernest N. Emenyonu, Chimalum Nwankwo, Louisa Uchum Egbunike, 2021 Over the past two decades there has been a resurgence in the writing of African and African diaspora speculative and science fiction writing Discussions around the rise of science fiction and fantasy have led to a push back by writers and scholars who have suggested that this is not a new phenomenon in African literature This collection focuses on the need to recalibrate ways of reading and categorising this genre of African writing through critical examinations both of classics such as Kofi Awoonor's Woman of the Aeroplanes 1988 and Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o's oeuvre as well as more recent fiction from writers including Nnedi Okorafor Nnamdi Serpell and Masande Ntshanga Back cover

The Cultural Imaginary of Terrorism in Public Discourse, Literature, and Film Michael C. Frank, 2017-06-14 This study investigates the overlaps between political discourse and literary and cinematic fiction arguing that both are informed by and contribute to the cultural imaginary of terrorism Whenever mass mediated acts of terrorism occur they tend to trigger a proliferation of threat scenarios not only in the realm of literature and film but also in the statements of policymakers security experts and journalists In the process the discursive boundary between the factual and the speculative can become difficult to discern To elucidate this phenomenon this book proposes that terror is a halfway house between the real and the imaginary For what characterizes terrorism is less the single act of violence than it is the fact that this act is perceived to be the beginning or part of a potential series and that further acts are expected to occur As turn of the century writers such as Stevenson and Conrad were the first to point out this gives terror a fantastical dimension a fact reinforced by the clandestine nature of both terrorist and counter terrorist operations Supported by contextual readings of selected texts and films from The Dynamiter and The Secret Agent through late Victorian science fiction to post 9/11 novels and cinema this study explores the complex interplay between actual incidents of political violence the surrounding discourse and fictional engagement with the issue to show how terrorism becomes an object of fantasy Drawing on research from a variety of disciplines The Cultural Imaginary of Terrorism will be a valuable resource for those with interests in the areas of Literature and Film Terrorism Studies Peace and Conflict Studies Trauma Studies and Cultural Studies Caribbean Inhospitability Natalie Lauren Belisle, 2025-02-14 The Caribbean has a global reputation for extending unparalleled hospitality to foreign guests Yet local citizens express feeling alienated from the Caribbean nations they call home Here Natalie Lauren Belisle probes the relationship between these incompatible narratives of Caribbean life Departing from tourist centered critiques of the Caribbean's visitor economy Belisle instead gives primacy to the political life of the Caribbean citizen subject within a broader hospitality regime Reading literary cinematic and digital texts that traverse the Spanish Anglophone and

Francophone Caribbean Belisle interprets citizens estrangement through misdirected political deliberation and demonstrates that inhospitality is institutionalized through the aesthetic reproducing itself in the laws that condition belonging and membership in the nation state Ultimately Caribbean Inhospitality recasts the decay of nation state sovereignty in the postcolonial Caribbean within the contours of neoliberalism international relations and cosmopolitanism

Mythologies of Violence in Postmodern Media Christopher Sharrett, 1999 This anthology examines a number of issues related to violence within the media landscape Violence has been a topic of continued concern within American culture and society Although there have been numerous sociological and historical studies of violence and its origins there is relatively little systematic analysis of violence within media representation even as this issue becomes preeminent within public discourse This anthology examines a number of issues related to violence within the media landscape using various methodologies to suggest the implications of the increasing obsession with violence for postmodern civilization

The New Routledge Companion to Science Fiction Mark Bould, Andrew M. Butler, Sherryl Vint, 2024-06-13 The New Routledge Companion to Science Fiction provides an overview of the study of science fiction across multiple academic fields It offers a new conceptualisation of the field today marking the significant changes that have taken place in sf studies over the past 15 years Building on the pioneering research in the first edition the collection reorganises historical coverage of the genre to emphasise new geographical areas of cultural production and the growing importance of media beyond print It also updates and expands the range of frameworks that are relevant to the study of science fiction The periodisation has been reframed to include new chapters focusing on science fiction produced outside the Anglophone context including South Asian Latin American Chinese and African diasporic science fiction The contributors use both well established critical and theoretical approaches and embrace a range of new ones including biopolitics climate crisis critical ethnic studies disability studies energy humanities game studies medical humanities new materialisms and sonic studies This book is an invaluable resource for students and established scholars seeking to understand the vast range of engagements with science fiction in scholarship today Chapter 39 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
