Speculative Realism Problems And Prospects:

Speculative Realism Peter Gratton, 2014-09-25 The first book length survey of speculative realism a rapidly emerging field in contemporary Continental philosophy Speculative Realism Peter Gratton, 2014-09-25 Speculative realism is one of the most talked about movements in recent Continental philosophy It has been discussed widely amongst the younger generation of Continental philosophers seeking new philosophical approaches and promises to form the cornerstone of future debates in the field This book introduces the contexts out of which speculative realism has emerged and provides an overview of the major contributors and latest developments It guides the reader through the important questions asked by realism what can I know what is reality examining philosophy's perennial questions in new ways The book begins with the speculative realist's critique of correlationism the view that we can never reach what is real beneath our language systems our means for perception or our finite manner of being in the world It goes on to critically review the work of the movement's most important thinkers including Quentin Meillassoux Ray Brassier and Graham Harman but also other important writers such as Jane Bennett and Catherine Malabou whose writings delineate alternative approaches to the real It interrogates the crucial questions these thinkers have raised and concludes with a look toward the future of speculative realism especially as it relates to the reality of time Speculative realism, 20?? The Palgrave Handbook of Contemporary Gothic Clive Bloom, 2020-07-10 Simply put there is absolutely nothing on the market with the range of ambition of this strikingly eclectic collection of essays Not only is it impossible to imagine a more comprehensive view of the subject most readers even specialists in the subject will find that there are elements of the Gothic genre here of which they were previously unaware Barry Forshaw Author of British Gothic Cinema and Sex and Film The Palgrave Handbook of Contemporary Gothic is the most comprehensive compendium of analytic essays on the modern Gothic now available covering the vast and highly significant period from 1918 to 2019 The Gothic sensibility over 200 years old embraces its dark past whilst anticipating the future From demons and monsters to post apocalyptic fears and ecological fantasies Gothic is thriving as never before in the arts and in popular culture This volume is made up of 62 comprehensive chapters with notes and extended bibliographies contributed by scholars from around the world The chapters are written not only for those engaged in academic research but also to be accessible to students and dedicated followers of the genre Each chapter is packed with analysis of the Gothic in both theory and practice as the genre has mutated and spread over the last hundred years Starting in 1918 with the impact of film on the genre's development and moving through its many and varied international incarnations each chapter chronicles the history of the gothic milieu from the movies to gaming platforms and internet memes television and theatre The volume also looks at how Gothic intersects with fashion music and popular culture a multi layered multi ethnic even a trans gendered experience as we move into the twenty first century The Trouble with Speculation Christine Mortimer, Maria Alejandra Luján Escalante, 2024-10-28 Bringing together contributors from Europe North America and

Australia this book questions the purpose and outcomes of speculation in practical settings In the context of interrelated and complex global challenges speculation is not just useful but necessary The chapters in this book present a cross disciplinary dialogue of people that are developing work in speculation and interrogates its practices and ethical and political charges Through these discussions the book explores the potential of speculation in addressing issues such as climate change urban futures and new political practices

Shadowing the Anthropocene: Eco-Realism for Turbulent Times Adrian Ivakhiv, 2018 A spectre is haunting humanity the spectre of a reality that will outwit and in the end bury us The Anthropocene or The Human Era is an attempt to name our geological fate that we will one day disappear into the layer cake of Earth's geology while highlighting humanity in the starring role of today's earthly drama In Shadowing the Anthropocene Adrian Ivakhiv proposes an ecological realism that takes as its starting point humanity's eventual demise The only question for a realist today he suggests is what to do now and what quality of compost to leave behind with our burial The book engages with the challenges of the Anthropocene and with a series of philosophical efforts to address them including those of Slavoj Žižek and Charles Taylor Graham Harman and Timothy Morton Isabelle Stengers and Bruno Latour and William Connolly and Jane Bennett Along the way there are volcanic eruptions and revolutions ant cities and dog parks data clouds and space junk pagan gods and sacrificial altars dark flow souls of things and jazz Ivakhiv draws from centuries old process relational thinking that harkens back to Daoist and Buddhist sages but gains incisive re invigoration in the philosophies of Charles Sanders Peirce and Alfred North Whitehead He translates those insights into practices of engaged Anthropocenic bodymindfulness aesthetic ethical and ecological practices for living in the shadow of the Anthropocene

The Intimate Life of Dissent: Anthropological Perspectives Harini Amarasuriya, Tobias Kelly, Sidharthan Maunaguru, Galina Oustinova-Stjepanovic, Jonathan Spencer, 2020-09-01 The Intimate Life of Dissent examines the meanings and implications of public acts of dissent drawing on examples from ethnography and history Acts of dissent are never simply just about abstract principles but also come at great personal risk to both the dissidents and to those close to them Dissent is therefore embedded in deep complex and sometimes contradictory intimate relations This book puts acts of high principle back into the personal relations out of which they emerge and take effect raising new questions about the relationship between intimacy and political commitment It does so through an introduction and eight individual chapters drawing on examples including Sri Lankan leftists Soviet dissidents Tibetan exiles Kurdish prisoners British pacifists Indonesian student activists and Jewish peace activists

Ritual, Emotion, and Materiality in the Early Christian World Soham Al-Suadi, Richard S. Ascough, Richard E. DeMaris, 2021-12-30 This volume advances our understanding of early Christianity as a lived religion by approaching it through its rites the emotions and affects surrounding those rites and the material setting for the practice of them The connections between emotions and ritual between rites and their materiality and between emotions and their physical manifestation in ancient Mediterranean culture have been inadequately explored as yet especially with regard to
