Science Fiction and Speculative Fiction P. L. Thomas, 2013-09-03 Why did Kurt Vonnegut shun being labeled a writer of science fiction SF How did Margaret Atwood and Ursula K Le Guin find themselves in a public argument about the nature of SF This volume explores the broad category of SF as a genre as one that challenges readers viewers teachers and scholars and then as one that is often itself challenged as the authors in the collection do SF this volume acknowledges is an enduring argument The collected chapters include work from teachers scholars artists and a wide range of SF fans offering a powerful and unique blend of voices to scholarship about SF as well as examinations of the place for SF in the classroom Among the chapters discussions focus on SF within debates for and against SF the history of SF the tensions related to SF and other genres the relationship between SF and science SF novels SF short fiction SF film and visual forms including TV SF young adult fiction SF comic books and graphic novels and the place of SF in contemporary public discourse The unifying thread running through the volume as with the series is the role of critical literacy and pedagogy and how SF informs both as essential elements of liberatory and democratic education Science Fiction - The Evolutionary Mythology of the Future

Thomas Lombardo, 2018-12-14 An evolutionary and transformative journey through the history of science fiction from the innermost passions and dreams of the human spirit to the farthest reaches of the universe human imagination and beyond

Speculative Research Alex Wilkie, Martin Savransky, Marsha Rosengarten, 2017-02-17 Is another future possible So called late modernity is marked by the escalating rise in and proliferation of uncertainties and unforeseen events brought about by the interplay between and patterning of social natural techno scientific and political economic developments The future has indeed become problematic The question of how heterogeneous actors engage futures what intellectual and practical strategies they put into play and what the implications of such strategies are have become key concerns of recent social and cultural research addressing a diverse range of fields of practice and experience Exploring questions of speculation possibilities and futures in contemporary societies Speculative Research responds to the pressing need to not only critically account for the role of calculative logics and rationalities in managing societal futures but to develop alternative approaches and sensibilities that take futures seriously as possibilities and that demand new habits and practices of attention invention and experimentation

Basic Categories of Fantastic Literature Revisited Joanna Matyjaszczyk, Piotr Spyra, Andrzej Wicher, 2014-11-19 A unique collection of essays on selected aspects of science fiction fantasy and broadly understood fantastic literature unified by a highly theoretical focus this volume offers an overview of the most important theories pertaining to the field of the fantastic such as Tzvetan Todorov's definition of the term itself J R R Tolkien's essay On Fairy Stories and the concept of Gothic space The composition and order of the chapters provide the reader with a systematic overview of major

National Conference on Contradiction, Conflict and Continuity NHIT, 2017-03-29 The title of the conference Contradiction Conflict and Continuity Their Significance in Contemporary Society is generic Contradiction and conflict became tangible from the time when language became the medium of expression The inevitable consequence of such contradictions and conflicts was severe bloodsheds As society developed perceptions towards contradiction and conflict were also changed Some ideologies which were identified as the prevalent customs of the society became the mammoth issues of contradiction and conflicts Sometimes the contradictions were restricted within discussion among the cultured people sometimes it was continued as people holding different ideologies moved on simultaneously without influencing the other for example between the theist and the atheist and among various isms The same idealism which triggered the ire of conflict and contradiction in different socio political aspects sometimes become the soul guiding force for the development in various trajectories

Practicing Science Fiction Karen Hellekson, Craig B. Jacobsen, Patrick B. Sharp, 2014-01-10 Drawn from the Science Fiction Research Association conference held in Lawrence Kansas in 2008 the essays in this volume address intersections among the reading writing and teaching of science fiction Part 1 studies the teaching of SF placing analytical and pedagogical research next to each other to reveal how SF can be both an object of study as well as a teaching tool for other disciplines Part 2 examines SF as a genre of mediation between the sciences and the humanities using close readings and analyses of the literary scientific nexus Part 3 examines SF in the media using specific television programs graphic novels and films as examples of how SF successfully transcends the medium of transmission Finally Part 4 features close readings of SF texts by women including Joanna Russ Ursula K Le Guin and Octavia E Butler Fictional Languages in Science Fiction Literature Israel A. C. Noletto, 2024-05-31 Fictional Languages in Science Fiction Literature surveys a large number of fictional languages those created as part of a literary world to present a multifaceted account of the literary phenomenon of glossopoesis language invention Consisting of a few untranslated sentences exotic names or even fully fledged languages with detailed grammar and vocabulary fictional languages have been a common element of English language fiction since Thomas More's Utopia 1516 Different notions of the functions of such fictional languages in narrative have been proposed as rooted in phonaesthetics and contextual features or as being used for characterisation and construction of alterity Framed within stylistics and informed by narrative theory literary theory literary pragmatics and semiotics this study combines previous typologies into a new 5 part reading model comprising unique analytical approaches tailored to science fiction's specific discourse and style exploring the relationship between glossopoesis world building storytelling interpretation and rhetoric both in prose and paratexts Postmodern Utopias and Feminist Fictions Jennifer A. Wagner-Lawlor, 2013-07-31 This study examines feminist speculative fiction from the late twentieth and early twenty first century and finds within it a new vision for the future Rejecting notions of postmodern utopia as exclusionary Jennifer A Wagner Lawlor advances one defined in terms of hospitality casting what she calls imaginative sympathy as the foundation of utopian desire Tracing these themes through the works of Atwood Butler Lessing and Winterson as well as those of well known Muslim feminists such as El Saadawi Parsipur and Mernissi Wagner Lawlor balances literary analysis with innovative extensions of feminist philosophy to show how inclusionary utopian thinking can inform and promote political agency Examining these contemporary fictions reveals the rewards of attending to a community that acknowledges difference diversity and the imaginative potential of every human being
