Healing Trauma Guide Framework:

Healing Trauma Kitty K. Wu, Catherine S. Tang, Eugenie Y. Leung, 2011-04-01 This is the first book written on clinical research and work related to the development of applied trauma psychology in Hong Kong Contributed by numerous reputable researchers and clinicians the book covers the latest research on and practice in assessment psychological sequel including psychological distress and growth of traumatic experience evidence based clinical intervention and rehabilitation services for people affected by various traumatic stresses Discussed in detail are interpersonal trauma like child sexual abuse and family violence health and medical trauma such as infectious disease and the pain related to end of life mass trauma and disaster including community psychological support programme developed in Hong Kong and Sichuan as well as the rationale for mainstreaming trauma training in university education This book serves to strengthen the link between research and practice and between academic work and community awareness It is a guidebook for professionals serving the traumatized academics dedicated to research and development of trauma psychology students learning and educators passing on the existing knowledge and experience accumulated for healing trauma Professional's Guide to Trauma-informed Decision Making Cortny Stark, Jose Luis Tapia Jr, Kylie Rogalla, Kate Bunch, 2024-05-08 Professional s Guide to Trauma informed Ethical Decision Making offers helping professionals a framework comprising the 10 Principles of Trauma informed Ethical Practice Stark Tapia Fuselier Bunch 2022 enhanced with prominent ethical decision making models These principles build upon the SAMHSA 2014 conceptualization of trauma informed care address key concepts such as Adverse Childhood Experiences ACEs and their long term impact marginalization stress the influence of military and law enforcement experience and others Despite distinctions between the diversity of helping professions in credentials scope of practice and theoretical approach the same decision making models for trauma informed care is a requirement for best practice Thus this volume is designed to address the needs of professionals serving diverse clientele particularly those who ve experienced trauma and adversity Practitioners may utilize this text to as a guide to assist with ethical decision making when working with client survivors of trauma and educators may select this text as required reading to support the development of trauma informed clinicians in training A Psychospiritual Healing manual with integral psychedelic therapy , 2024-03-28 The invitation to write a foreword for this book came at an opportune time in the development of the field of psychedelic assisted therapy amid the emergence of the future iteration of mental health services delivered by the promises of the psychedelic renaissance Also alive in this context are the substantial individual social and cultural repercussions of a global pandemic on mental health and human behavior A growing body of research shows encouraging clinical results in treating trauma depression demoralization end of life existential issues addiction and eating disorders using MDMA psilocybin ketamine and other psychedelic medications However the field of psychedelic assisted therapy has gained accelerated support from donors the medical establishment and corporate investors in recent years Along with the enthusiasm recognition funding and media coverage directed toward psychedelic assisted therapy ethical standards the lack of adequate training and issues of accessibility sustainability diversity and inclusion are increasingly becoming part of the movement's forefront These gaps in the emerging field highlight the need for more guidance and structure around ethical clinical and social considerations for these innovative treatments This book can serve as a cornerstone for the field of psychedelic assisted therapy at this time This essential contribution offers a depth oriented somatic and relational therapeutic approach emphasizing the imperative of ethical standards the relevance of the therapeutic use of touch the significance of the unconscious in the construction of symbolic meaning and intersubjective processes and the need for trauma informed approaches while centering liberation psychology and decolonial practices The topics covered in this book and the themes embraced by the authors are of great relevance and are not yet comprehensively articulated in existing publications on psychedelic assisted therapy The diverse authors of this book approach their chapters based on their diverse social and cultural identities as well as their extensive clinical experience providing psychedelic assisted therapy in government approved clinical research private practice and nonprofit organization settings Their contributions aim at a vision of psychedelic assisted therapy centered on decolonial practices attuned to the somatic imaginal cultural and relational dimensions of being allowing the emergence of transpersonal processes Each chapter elaborates practical and theoretical aspects of this treatment modality through a unique theoretical framework providing inspiration and guidance to readers working in this field as well as those compelled to psychedelic work for personal transformation

Trauma Recovery and Empowerment Maxine Harris, 1998-09 This one of a kind guide serves as a rich and essential resource for mental health professionals working with women whose lives have been shattered by the trauma of sexual physical or emotional abuse The book presents a practical step by step guide to implementing a group recovery program for female trauma survivors
