DEFINITION OF SWAT

1.1 A Special Weapons and Tactics (SWAT) team is any designated group of law enforcement officers who are selected, trained, and equipped to work as a coordinated team to resolve critical incidents that are so hazardous, complex, or unusual that they may exceed the capabilities of first responders or investigative units.

► The primary characteristic of SWAT that distinguishes it from the other units is the focus of effort. SWAT teams are focused on tactical solutions, as opposed to other functions, such as investigation. The purpose of SWAT is to increase the likelihood of safely resolving critical incidents. Nothing in these guidelines is intended to preclude agencies from utilizing specially trained units in areas such as narcotics investigations, felony apprehension, and other tasks.
