Cli-Fi and Class Debra J. Rosenthal, Jason de Lara Molesky, 2023-10-09 Since its emergence in the late twentieth century climate fiction or cli fi has concerned itself as much with economic injustice and popular revolt as with rising seas and soaring temperatures Indeed with its insistent focus on redressing social disparities cli fi might reasonably be classified as a form of protest literature As environmental crises escalate and inequality intensifies literary writers and scholars alike have increasingly scrutinized the dual exploitations of the earth's ecosystems and the socioeconomically disadvantaged Cli Fi and Class focuses on the representation of class dynamics in climate change narratives With fifteen essays on the intersection of the economic and the ecological addressing works ranging from the novels of Joseph Conrad Cormac McCarthy and Octavia Butler to the film Black Panther and the Broadway musical Hadestown this collection unpacks the complex ways economic exploitation impacts planetary well being and the ways climatic change shapes those inequities in turn Ecology & Environment Quick Revision Material for UPSC & State PSC General Studies Exams Disha Experts, 2021-08-01 Science Fiction and Climate Change Andrew Milner, J. R. Burgmann, 2020 This is a timely comprehensive and thoroughly researched study of climate fiction from around the world including novels short stories films and other formats Informed by a sociological perspective it will be an invaluable resource for students and scholars looking to enter and expand the field of climate fiction studies The Sea in the Literary Imagination Ekaterina V. Kobeleva, Ben P. Robertson, Shannon W. Thompson, 2019-01-03 This collection explores nautical themes in a variety of literary contexts from multiple cultures Including contributors from five continents it emphasizes the universality of human experience with the sea while focusing on literature that spans a millennium stretching from medieval romance to the twenty first century reimagining of classic literary texts in film These fresh essays engage in discussions of literature from the UK the USA India Chile Turkey Spain Japan Colombia and the Caribbean Scholars of maritime literature will find the collection interesting for the unique insights it offers on individual literary texts while general readers will be intrigued by the interconnectedness that it reveals in human experience with the sea New Approaches to the Twenty-First-Century Anglophone Novel Sibylle Baumbach, Birgit Neumann, 2019-12-20 This book discusses the complex ways in which the novel offers a vibrant arena for critically engaging with our contemporary world and scrutinises the genre's political ethical and aesthetic value Far reaching cultural political and technological changes during the past two decades have created new contexts for the novel which have yet to be accounted for in literary studies Addressing the need for fresh transdisciplinary approaches that explore these developments the book focuses on the multifaceted responses of the novel to key global challenges including migration and cosmopolitanism posthumanism and ecosickness human and animal rights affect and biopolitics human cognition and anxieties of inattention and the transculturality of terror By doing so it testifies to the ongoing cultural relevance of the genre Lastly it examines a range of 21st century Anglophone novels to encourage new critical discourses in literary studies

Contemporary Perspectives on Ecofeminism Mary Phillips, Nick Rumens, 2015-11-19 Why is ecofeminism still needed to address the environmental emergencies and challenges of our times Ecofeminism has a chequered history in terms of its popularity and its perceived value in conceptualizing the relationship between gender and nature as well as feeding forms of activism that aim to confront the environmental challenges of the moment This book provides a much needed comprehensive overview of the relevance and value of using eco feminist theories It gives a broad coverage of traditional and emerging eco feminist theories and explores across a range of chapters their various contributions and uniquely spans various strands of ecofeminist thinking The origins of influential eco feminist theories are discussed including key themes and some of its leading figures contributors include Erika Cudworth Greta Gaard Trish Glazebrook and Niamh Moore and outlines its influence on how scholars might come to a more generative understanding of the natural environment The book examines eco feminism s potential contribution for advancing current discussions and research on the relationships between the humans and more than humans that share our world This timely volume makes a distinctive scholarly contribution and is a valuable resources for students and academics in the fields of environmentalism political ecology sustainability and nature resource management

Monstrous Nature Robin L. Murray, Joseph K. Heumann, 2016 Godzilla a traditional natural monster and representation of cinema s subgenre of natural attack also provides a cautionary symbol of the dangerous consequences of mistreating the natural world monstrous nature on the attack Horror films such as Godzilla invite an exploration of the complexities of a monstrous nature that humanity both creates and embodies Robin L Murray and Joseph K Heumann demonstrate how the horror film and its offshoots can often be understood in relation to a monstrous nature that has evolved either deliberately or by accident and that generates fear in humanity as both character and audience This connection between fear and the natural world opens up possibilities for ecocritical readings often missing from research on monstrous nature the environment and the horror film Organized in relation to four recurring environmental themes in films that construct nature as a monster anthropomorphism human ecology evolution and gendered landscapes the authors apply ecocritical perspectives to reveal the multiple ways nature is constructed as monstrous or in which the natural world itself constructs monsters This interdisciplinary approach to film studies fuses cultural theological and scientific critiques to explore when and why nature becomes monstrous Cracking IAS Prelims 2024 General Studies (Environment and Ecology) Quick Revision Notes With Practice MCQs 110, Cracking IAS Prelims 2024 General Studies Environment and Ecology Quick Revision Notes With Practice MCQs The most important source of Environment and Ecology for UPSC is NCERT Books Aspirants should read Environment and Ecology from NCERT Books for UPSC to prepare for the IAS Exam Taking notes is an efficient way to organise the study material for Quick Revision UPSC candidates often find it difficult to find the right topics to focus on or may not have the time or resources at hand to take efficient notes With this in mind we at MYUPSC have developed a compilation of NCERT Notes for UPSC As per the UPSC 2024 calendar the IAS Prelims and main exams are scheduled to take place on May 26 2024 and September 20 2024 onwards respectively Environment and Ecology is an important part of the Prelims GS 1 paper of the Civil Services Examination Storytelling to Accelerate Climate Solutions Emily Coren, Hua Wang, 2024-05-27 The climate is changing faster than our cultural practices are adapting to it This Open Access volume co edited by Emily Coren a science communicator and Hua Wang a communication scientist presents a survey of the latest in agency focused climate storytelling Together practitioners and scholars across different fields shared their knowledge experience and insight about how stories can be designed and told to engage enable and empower individuals and communities in climate communication and action You will learn a wide range of narrative strategies and exemplary applications of climate storytelling in terms of professional practices e g education literature journalism popular media genres and formats e g drama comedy fiction media platforms e g television radio mobile and communication modalities e g text visual audio multisensory Entertainment education has been proven over decades to be an effective tool for social and behavior change in the public health sphere and has not yet been applied at scale to the massive ongoing climate related disasters that we need to solve now fast There is an urgent need to rapidly apply and adapt public engagement tools for climate communication to speed up our response times for climate change mitigation and adaptation This book takes a snapshot of where climate storytelling is currently at describes where it fits within a climate communication landscape and supports the next steps of its development It facilitates the of creation climate storytelling efficiently by sharing and amplifying what is working well and building collaborations between practitioners and researchers This is an open access book The Cambridge Companion to Environmental Humanities Jeffrey Cohen, Stephanie Foote, 2021-09-02 Offers a comprehensive introduction to the environmental humanities It addresses the 21st century recognition of an environmental crisis The Ecology of American Noir Katrina Younes, 2025-04-07 This volume investigates the relationship between the conventions of noir fiction and film and its sub types in relation to environmental crises Dr Younes addresses questions that not only allow readers to re read early hardboiled literature and neo noir films but also help identify a new sub genre of noir and develop an ecocritical methodology eco noir This text traces the development of strategies of mapping urban blight and environmental deterioration in classic hardboiled fiction of the 1940s neo noir films of the 1970s and eco noir texts of the post millennial period Introducing the concept of eco noir as both a sub genre and fictional form as well as a methodology the volume develops a new way of understanding the relationship between noir and climate fiction texts Through a close reading of hardboiled neo noir and eco noir texts including those by Dashiell Hammett Raymond Chandler Robert Towne Kim Stanley Robinson and Jeff VanderMeer it asks and addresses the question how does each sub genre of noir map the noir atmosphere of the private investigator s natural setting in terms of environmental toxicity The Ecology of American Noir contributes to critical conversations in both noir and ecocritical scholarship making clear how a new understanding of noir as defined through environmental and atmospheric conditions invites readers viewers and scholars of the genre to generate meaningful dialogues about our decaying and deteriorating environment

African Climate Futures Carl Death, 2025-06-10 African Climate Futures shows how climate changed futures are imagined in Africa and by Africans and how these future visions shape political debates and struggles in the present Scientific climate scenarios forecast bleak futures with increased droughts floods lethal heatwaves sea level rises declining crop yields and greater exposure to vector borne diseases Yet African climate futures could also encompass energy transitions and socio economic revolutions transformed political agency and human subjectivities and radically reparative more than human climate politics At the heart of the book is an original and interdisciplinary approach It studies official climate policy strategies and fictional texts side by side as ecopolitical imaginaries that envision low carbon climate changed futures and narrate pathways from here to there It discusses net zero strategies from Ethiopia The Gambia Nigeria South Africa and Zimbabwe and draws on postcolonial feminist and queer theory arguing that Africanfuturist climate fiction can inspire more radical reparative more than human ecopolitical imaginaries These stories can help us to understand the debts we all owe imagine what reparations might entail and explore the contours of living convivially alongside more than human others in heterotopian climate changed futures Stories can help explore how we might feel in climate changed futures and can help us to narrate a path through them This book uses Africanfuturist climate fiction to inspire new ways of challenging and enriching theoretical debates in global climate change politics including how we understand the places temporalities ecologies and politics of climate futures If we want to survive to tell new stories in liveable futures then we need to urgently and radically transform carboniferous capitalism Oxford Studies in African Politics and International Relations is a series for scholars and students working on African politics and International Relations and related disciplines Volumes concentrate on contemporary developments in African political science political economy and International Relations such as electoral politics democratization decentralization gender and political representation the political impact of natural resources the dynamics and consequences of conflict comparative political thought and the nature of the continent's engagement with the East and West Comparative and mixed methods work is particularly encouraged Case studies are welcomed but should demonstrate the broader theoretical and empirical implications of the study and its wider relevance to contemporary debates The focus of the series is on sub Saharan Africa although proposals that explain how the region engages with North Africa and other parts of the world are of interest Series Editors Nic Cheeseman University of Birmingham Peace Medie University of Bristol and Ricardo Soares de Oliveira University of Oxford

Handbook of the Philosophy of Climate Change Gianfranco Pellegrino, Marcello Di Paola, 2023-11-24 This Handbook offers a broad yet unified treatment of many philosophical issues connected with climate change ranging from foundational puzzles to detailed applications It extends to many branches of philosophy that are relevant to the understanding of the premises and implications of the impacts of climate change on human and nonhuman life on Earth More specifically the handbook examines the scientific accounts of climate change as well as its causes It explores the tools offered by social sciences and humanities to study the societal premises and impacts of climate change as well as delving deeper into the ethical and political issues connected with and resulting from climate change By doing so it puts it all in an ecological and historical context In addition the book offers solutions to some important philosophical puzzles and problems and indicates paths of interaction between philosophy and other disciplines The discussion about climate change and the mitigation adaptation policies spans many areas and levels from abstract science and philosophy to current on the ground politics However climate change is also a great philosophical puzzle Indeed its existential and practical relevance can be thought to largely derive from the philosophical complications it engenders Climate change is applied philosophy par excellence Preventing dangerous anthropogenic climate change needs very good philosophy applied to concrete and specific practical issues Climate change is an area where scholars from very different provenances should cooperate on equal terms having in view a common and really important purpose contribute to preventing great burdens and even the extinction of humankind and the destruction of hospitable and valuable non human nature
