Post Apocalyptic Story Quick Start:

Postapocalyptic Fiction and the Social Contract Claire P. Curtis, 2010-07-17 Postapocalyptic Fiction and the Social Contract We'll Not Go Home Again provides a framework for our fascination with the apocalyptic events. The popular appeal of the end of the world genre is clear in movies, novels, and television shows. Even our political debates over global warming, nuclear threats, and pandemic disease reflect a concern about the possibility of such events. This popular fascination is really a fascination with survival: how can we come out alive? And what would we do next? The end of the world is not about species death but about beginning again. This book uses postapocalyptic fiction as a terrain for thinking about the state of nature, the hypothetical fiction that is the driving force behind the social contract. The first half of the book examines novels that tell the story of the move from the state of nature to civil society through a Hobbesian, a Lockean, or a Rousseauian lens, including Lucifer's Hammer by Larry Niven and Jerry Pournelle, Alas Babylon by Pat Frank, Malevil by Robert Merle, and Into the Forest by Jean Hegland. The latter half of the book examines Octavia Butler's postapocalyptic Parable series, in which a new kind of social contract emerges, one built on the fact of human dependence and vulnerability. The Passage Home: A Post-Apocalypse Science Fiction Short Story Roger Williams, 2018-09-09 The second hard science fiction short story in the universe spanning Mortal Passage trilogy by the author of The Metamorphosis of Prime Intellect. Humanity is extinct thanks to a massive error on the part of the Artificial Intelligences we created. But the AIs don't intend to let that stand. An SF story of hope, resurrection, and space exploration. Around 8,200 words. This story was originally available to read online but now you can enjoy it freshly reformatted for your favorite device.
