Compendia Rerum Iudaicarum Ad Novum Testamentum, 1984 Novum Testamentum Aethiopice Rochus Zuurmond, 1989 Yahweh Versus Baal Norman C. Habel, 2018-12-04 Since 1929 scholars have been concerned with the interpretation of certain Canaanite literary materials found at Ras Shamra in North Syria known as Ugarit in ancient times Attention has been paid primarily to certain linguistic and cultural parallels between this corpus of literature and sections of the Old Testament But despite the numerous treatments of the isolated points of contact between Ugaritic and biblical thought one major question has not received an adequate answer How and to what extent are the Ugaritic texts and especially the Baal texts relevant for an appreciation of the fundamentals of the Israelite religion Professor Habel seeks to answer at least part of this question by translating pertinent segments of the Baal texts according to the sequence of G R Driver summarizing their context and considering their import thought sequence and basic ideas in relation to appropriate materials from the early faith of Israel The succinct results of this comparison are provocative to say the least The author begins by isolating the major features of an underlying conflict tradition The conflict between Israel's beliefs and the religious forces of its environment was a vital influence in the formulation of Israel's earliest religious faith and experience The content of this faith as summarized in the concise wording of Exodus 19 3 6 is shown to be virtually identical with that of Israel's earliest poetic heritage where a lively polemic against the Canaanite religious is discernible One of the highlights of Professor Habel's comparison of the Baal texts with Israel's archaic poetic traditions is his contribution to the understanding of Exodus 15 In this connection he discovers a clearly defined sequence of ideas common to certain Baal texts and Exodus 15 1 18 By skillfully utilizing the work of other scholars the author sheds additional light on the polemical and theological import of several passages depicting theophanies of Yahweh A similar evaluation of the relevance of the Ugaritic texts for the cultic practices of Israel is made possible by a sober evaluation of the pertinent texts Martin Luther's Bible W. Gordon Campbell,2024-01-01 Martin Luther's 1522 September Testament marked a watershed in Bible translation making Scripture available to ordinary German people in their own tongue and sparking similar efforts across Europe Building on the nascent trend of vernacular Bible translations in the early sixteenth century Luther's translation quickly became definitive linguistically theologically and culturally especially once the complete Bible was published in 1534 with production of New Testaments and Bibles in French English and other languages keeping pace Luther and his associates constantly revised and improved their methodology for translation and interpretation over a quarter century of Bible publishing efforts that helped shape Bible translation reading and exegesis for scholars and ordinary Christians alike well beyond his lifetime Martin Luther's Bible commemorates the September Testament exploring the Wittenberg Bible project in its context and tracing aspects of its legacy in Europe and the wider world from the sixteenth century to the present day Essays from a range of leading experts draw upon the 2022 Martin Luther Bible Translator Illustrator and Publisher International Conference held at Union Theological College Belfast Together they provide critical new insights into the linguistic hermeneutical and theological history and influence of this landmark text Les préfaces au Novum Testamentum (1516) Desiderius Erasmus,1990 Catalogues of Manuscripts and Books for Sale by Thomas Thorpe Thomas Thorpe (Bookseller, of Bedford Street, Covent Garden.),1843 Nouum Testamentum Sancti Irenaei Episcopi Lugdunensis Irénée ((saint ;),1923 Lumley's Bibliographical Advertiser ,1840 The Eschatology of Second Zechariah Katrina J. A. Larkin,1994 Peeters 1994 But Their Faces Were All Looking Up Eric M. Vanden Eykel,2016-12-01 This study of the Protevangelium of James explores the interrelationship of authors readers texts and meaning Its central aim is to better understand how the process of repetition gave rise to the narratives of the early Christian movement and how that process continued to fuel the creativity and imagination of future generations Divided into three parts Vanden Eykel addresses first specific episodes in the life of the Virgin consisting of Mary's childhood in the Jerusalem temple PJ 7 9 her spinning thread for the temple veil PJ 10 12 and Jesus birth in a cave outside Bethlehem PJ 17 20 The three episodes present a uniform picture of how the reader's discernment of intertexts can generate new layers of meaning and that these layers may reveal new aspects of the author's meaning some of which the author may not have anticipated A Gospel Synopsis of the Greek Text of Matthew, Mark and Luke Jenny Read-Heimerdinger,Josep Rius-Camps,2014-05-12 The aim of this new Gospel Synopsis is to enhance the study of the Synoptic Gospels and provide insights into the synoptic problem through a clear presentation of the Greek text Jenny Read-Heimerdinger and Josep Rius-Camps set out the Gospels of Matthew Mark and Luke in turn comparing each line by line with the other two A further innovative feature is that the text is presented according to two important Gospel manuscripts Codex Bezae and Codex Vaticanus rather than the usual eclectic edition of the Greek New Testament Thus not only are the differences between the Gospels clearly visible but also the complexity of their relationship is more easily identified through the comparison of two divergent manuscripts representative of distinct traditions Envisioning God in the Humanities Courtney J. P. Friesen, 2018-11-09 The humanities offer insights into the highest and lowest capabilities of our own natures and at their best they function as prophetic champions of human dignity and as inspired celebrants of beauty Envisioning God in the Humanities pays tribute to the career of Melissa Harl Sellew a scholar and teacher who embodies the ideals of these academic disciplines The collaboration of these essays attests to the potentialities for transcendence that emerge from rigorous and collective reflection on the texts images and ideas produced in ancient societies Taking its cue from Professor Sellew s own distinguished scholarship this collection of studies begins with analyses of the New Testament Gospels then moves more broadly toward the religious life of the ancient world as attested both in literature and materiality among Jews and Christians Greeks and Romans Just as Sellew has done throughout her career so this volume invites us into to the joy of exploring distant societies and in so doing into the fuller discovery of one s own self The Century Dictionary: The Century dictionary ,1895 The Interpretation of the Bible Joze Krasovec, 1999-10-01 This unique volume nearly 2000 pages in length and handsomely printed on Bible paper is perhaps the most comprehensive scholarly work of our time on the translation and interpretation of the Bible At its core are papers presented to an international symposium in Ljubljana in September 1996 to mark the publication of the new Slovenian version of the Bible a landmark in Slovene identity and cultural life In addition its distinguished editor Joze Krasovec has commissioned a wide range of contributions devoted to translations of the Bible in many languages including the Slavonic languages Croatian Czech Hungarian Polish and the Scandinavian languages The 82 chapters in this work mostly in English are divided into three parts Part I on ancient translations and hermeneutics of the Bible contains contributions by M E Boismard S P Brock K J Cathcart R P Gordon L J Grech M Hengel O Keel J Lust E Tov and others with a notable comprehensive bibliographic survey of oriental Bible translations from the first millennium by M van Esbroeck Part II on Slavonic and other translations of the Bible includes the first detailed study of the history of the Slavonic Bible by Francis J Thomson over 300 pp Part III with essays by such scholars as J H Charlesworth D J A Clines J Gniska M G rg N Lohfink and A C Thiselton concerns the interpretation of the Bible in translation philosophy theology art and music In an appendix a complete list of printed Bibles in languages throughout the world is presented for the first time Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle ,1838
