Reading Research at Work Katherine A. Dougherty Stahl, Michael C. McKenna, 2006-04-20 This book presents state of the science research on the components of successful literacy learning and how to target them in contemporary classrooms The volume builds on and extends the work of Steven Stahl whose pioneering contributions encompassed the key areas of phonemic awareness phonics vocabulary fluency comprehension and assessment Ten classic papers by Stahl are accompanied by 16 new chapters by other leading experts who highlight Stahl's theoretical methodological and instructional innovations describe how knowledge about each domain continues to evolve and discuss implications for helping all children become better readers 100 Top Picks for Homeschool Curriculum Cathy Duffy, 2005 A critical volume for the homeschooling community that helps parents make informed choices regarding learning styles and curriculum Teaching Reading Successfully Marlow Ediger, 2000 Contents Goals of Reading Instruction Organising for Reading Instruction Reading and the Structure of the English Language Affective Objectives in Reading Reading and Writing in the Curriculum Speaking Activities and Reading Reading in the Primary Grades Reading on the Intermediate Grade Level Phonics in the Teaching of Reading Reading Poetry in the Language Arts Spelling and the Language Arts Reading and Literature for Children Reading and Vocabulary Development The Psychology of Teaching Reading The Teacher Reading and Parents The Reading and Parents The Reading Curriculum Speaking and the Pupil Principles of Learning and the Teaching of Reading Computer Literacy in the Public Schools Supervision in the Reading Curriculum Reading and the Pupil in the Challenging Curriculum Grouping for Instruction in Reading Staff Development and Reading Reading, Language, and Literacy Fran Lehr, Jean Osborn, 2012-10-12 The impetus for this book emerged from a conference that brought together publishers and reading researchers and educators for the purpose of examining the best available research evidence about what we know and what we have yet to learn about the teaching of reading and about how children learn to read The goal of the conference was to contribute to a sound research base upon which to develop classroom practices that will ensure that every American child will become fully literate. Because the field is still so deeply divided over the best ways to translate belief into classroom practice, the editors decided to highlight rather than gloss over these divisions. It is hoped that the papers in this volume will promote thought and discussion that will lead to action in improving reading instruction for children now and into the new century.
