Writers of creative non fiction are often expected to be able to recreate reality to deal with or even access a singular truth But the author like any human is not an automaton remotely tasked with capturing a life or an event Whether we tell stories and understand them as fiction or non fiction or whether we draw away from these classifications writers craft and shape writing all writing No experience exists on a flat plane and recounting or interpreting events will always involve some element of artistic manipulation every instance exchange discussion event is open to multiple interpretations and can be described in many ways all of which are potentially truthful

Writing Creative Non Fiction Determining the Form contains essays and original writing from novelists poets songwriters musicians and academics The book covers topics that range from explorations of the role of the author definitions and representations of the form self and illness to the spectral elements of non fiction and its role in historical narratives The essays included in this volume address everything from memoir biography and autobiography to a discussion of musical approaches to criticism and a non fiction interview The book identifies key writers including Christopher Isherwood David Shields B S Jonson James Frey sne Seierstad John D Agata W G Sebald Jonathan Coe Hilary Mantel James Kelman Liz Lochhead and Arthur Frank and is essential reading for students researchers and writers of creative non fiction

Boje, 2014-06-20 Once upon a time the practice of storytelling was about collecting interesting stories about the past and converting them into soundbite pitches Now it is more about foretelling the ways the future is approaching the present prompting a re-storying of the past Storytelling has progressed and is about a diversity of voices not just one teller of one past it is how a group or organization of people negotiates the telling of history and the telling of what future is arriving in the present With the changes in storytelling practices and theory there is a growing need to look at new and different methodologies Within this exciting new book David M Boje develops new ways to ask questions in interviews and make observations of practice that are about storytelling the future This after all is where management practice concentrates its storytelling while much of the theory and method work is all about how the past might recur in the future Storytelling Organizational Practices takes the reader on a journey from looking at narratives of past experience through looking at living stories of emergence in the present to looking at how the future is arriving in ways that prompts a re storying of the past
