Smart Checklists For Managing People Knowledge:

How to Manage People Michael Armstrong, 2010-11-03 How to Manage People is a practical book from bestselling author Michael Armstrong. It provides advice to managers and team leaders on how to manage people in their teams, getting the best results from them and dealing with any people problems that may arise. Many managers have to do their job without HR advice, and this book is particularly designed to meet their needs. It covers every aspect that involves getting things done through people, including leadership, motivating people, team building, delegating, interviewing, managing performance, developing and rewarding people, managing change, and handling people problems. Concise yet comprehensive, How to Manage People provides vital support for every front line manager and should be essential reading for anyone who wants to get the best results from their staff.

Smart Alden Stuart Globe, 2013-09-17 Brief one page checklists for software and knowledge. Product Managers ensure knowledge sharing between people, businesses, and devices is efficient, frictionless, and accurate. Follow this simple and proven New Product Development process to ensure success and a consistent approach to creating knowledge based software solutions.

eWork and eBusiness in Architecture, Engineering and Construction Gudni Gudnason, Raimar Scherer, 2012-07-06 Since 1994 the European Conferences of Product and Process Modelling (www.ecppm.org) have provided a review of research, development, and industrial implementation of product and process model technology in the Architecture, Engineering, Construction, and Facilities Management (AEC FM) industry. Product Building Information Modelling has matured significantly in the last few years and has never been closer to having a permanent impact on the AEC FM industry as a mainstream technology. In this context, the 9th European Conference of Product and Process Modelling provided a forum for leading experts to discuss the latest achievements, emerging trends, and future directions in product and process modelling technology in this dynamic and fragmented industry, focusing on integrated project working, value based life cycle management, and intelligent and sustainable buildings and construction.

eWork and eBusiness in Architecture Engineering and Construction 2012 provides a comprehensive overview of topics including BIM in all life cycle stages, ICT for energy efficiency, smart buildings, and environmental performance; energy and building simulation; knowledge and semantic modelling; visualization technologies, as well as tools and methods to support innovations in design and construction processes. It further includes the proceedings of the 3rd Workshop on eBuildings Data Models, Energy Efficiency Vocabularies, which aim to identify ICT Energy Efficiency Vocabularies and Ontologies to foster interoperability of Energy Efficiency Management Systems.

eWork and eBusiness in Architecture Engineering and Construction 2012 will be of interest to academics and professionals working in the interdisciplinary area of information technology in architecture, engineering, and construction.

Learning Unlimited Alastair Rylatt, 2001 This is a guide to creating a learning organisation where staff are encouraged to learn and develop skills that may not be directly relevant to their job. The book provides activities to help readers identify the needs of their organisation.
