Lawson, 1998 Ministering to children is one of the most important tasks of the body of Christ. This comprehensive A-Z reference book is packed with information to help Christian educators understand and minister to children up to age twelve. After exploring the biblical and historical perspectives on why the church is called to minister to children, the authors provide specific suggestions for developing primary goals and objectives for children's programs. The Christian Educator's Handbook on Adult Education Jim introductory resource that connects foundational issues of theology and the social sciences with practical topics of how to teach. It is organized according to a comprehensive theory created by the educational philosopher William K. Frankena. The overarching objective is first reconciliation with God, then with ourselves, others, and creation itself. Christian Education

Robert E. Clark, Lin Johnson, Allyn K. Sloat, 1991-10-22 Whether in the home or in the church or in a Christian school, the challenge of contemporary Christian educators is to meet the academic needs of students while remaining unswerving in adherence to biblical principles. Christian Education Foundations for the Future introduces you to the basics of a healthy Christian education program, then takes you beyond showing you how to develop a fresh, innovative Christian education program that will revitalize your church, home, or school.
