Paul Dyson,2024-12-15 The 2025 edition of firstwriter com s annual directory for writers is the perfect book for anyone searching for literary agents book publishers or magazines It contains over 1 500 listings including revised and updated listings from the 2024 edition and over 300 brand new entries Finding the information you need is now quicker and easier than ever before with multiple tables and a detailed index and unique paragraph numbers to help you get to the listings you re looking for The variety of tables helps you navigate the listings in different ways and includes a Table of Authors which lists over 6 000 authors and tells you who represents them or who publishes them or both The number of genres in the index has expanded to over 900 So for example while there was only one option for Romance in previous editions you can now narrow this down to Historical Romance Fantasy Romance Supernatural Paranormal Romance Contemporary Romance Diverse Romance Erotic Romance Feminist Romance Christian Romance or even Amish Romance The new edition includes Over 650 literary agents and agencies Over 450 magazines and Over 500 publishers that don t charge fees International markets become more accessible than ever with listings that cover both the main publishing centres of New York and London as well as markets in other English speaking countries With more and more agents publishers and magazines accepting submissions online this international outlook is now more important than ever There are no adverts no advertorials and no obscure listings padding out hundreds of pages By including only what s important to writers contact details for literary agents publishers and magazines this directory is able to provide more listings than its competitors at a lower price The book also allows you to create a subscription to the firstwriter com website for free until 2026 This means you can get free access to the firstwriter com website where you can find even more listings and also benefit from other features such as advanced searches daily email updates feedback from users about the markets featured saved searches competitions listings searchable personal notes and more I know firsthand how lonely and dispiriting trying to find an agent and publisher can be So it s great to find a resource like firstwriter com that provides contacts advice and encouragement to aspiring writers I ve been recommending it for years now Robin Wade literary agent at the Wade Doherty Literary Agency Ltd and long term firstwriter com subscriber Alien Invasion Comics Cora Lennox,AI,2025-03-10 Alien Invasion Comics explores how comic books have mirrored and shaped our understanding of extraterrestrial life More than just escapist entertainment these visual narratives reflect deep seated anxieties and hopes about the unknown offering cultural commentary on real world issues Did you know that early alien invasion comics often served as allegories for the Cold War reflecting fears of foreign invasion and ideological conflict Further depictions of first contact scenarios frequently mirror real world anxieties about cultural exchange and the potential for misunderstanding The book progresses chronologically tracing the evolution of alien tropes from the Golden Age of comics to contemporary works It examines how social and political events have influenced these narratives analyzing specific comic panels to uncover deeper meanings By studying intergalactic warfare and alien encounters the book reveals how these fictional stories provide insights into our own values and biases This unique approach makes Alien Invasion Comics a valuable resource for those interested in understanding the intersection of comics science fiction and cultural studies

Nigerian Speculative Fiction Chukwunonso Ezeiyoke, 2025-05-30 This book is an exciting addition to a gap in non Western genre studies of African fiction It challenges the dominant canonicity of African literature which is overshadowed by texts concerned with the colonial discourse and writing back while exploring speculative themes in Nigerian fiction and writing that stem from an African cosmology and culture The book examines important twentieth century precursors of the post millennial boom in Nigerian Speculative Fiction SF reading texts that were omitted from the Nigerian literary canon developed in the 1960s It combines an analysis of recent fiction and criticism with a historical overview of the development of the under researched area of Nigerian SF Through these readings the author demonstrates the range of concerns explored by Nigerian SF including futurism posthumanism horror fantasy and science fiction among others This book argues that these narratives exceed the binary implicitly sustained by the texts that write back to the West and offers new readings of contemporary Nigerian SF works that imagine futures different from the past and present conditions imposed by capitalism colonialism and imperialism Providing new theoretical tools and concepts this book in the Studies in Global Genre Fiction series will be of interest to readers and scholars working in the fields of African studies African culture and society literature and language interdisciplinary literary studies area studies literary criticism and genre studies

Caribbean Inhospitability Natalie Lauren Belisle, 2025 The Caribbean has a global reputation for extending unparalleled hospitality to foreign guests Yet local citizens express feeling alienated from the Caribbean nations they call home Here Natalie Lauren Belisle probes the relationship between these incompatible narratives of Caribbean life Departing from tourist centered critiques of the Caribbean's visitor economy Belisle instead gives primacy to the political life of the Caribbean citizen subject within a broader hospitality regime Reading literary cinematic and digital texts that traverse the Spanish Anglophone and Francophone Caribbean Belisle interprets citizens estrangement through misdirected political deliberation and demonstrates that inhospitability is institutionalized through the aesthetic reproducing itself in the laws that condition belonging and membership in the nation state Ultimately Caribbean Inhospitability recasts the decay of nation state sovereignty in the postcolonial Caribbean within the contours of neoliberalism international relations and cosmopolitanism

Digital China Jessica Imbach,2025-10-01 Over the past decade digital technologies have profoundly reshaped the Chinese cultural landscape With a focus on the creative agency of new media and online communities this volume examines this development through the notion of the Sinocybersphere the networked spaces across the globe that not only operate on the Chinese script but also imaginatively negotiate the meanings of Chinese culture in the digital age Instead of asking what makes the internet or new media Chinese the chapters situate contemporary entanglements of cultural and digital practices within specific historical social and discursive contexts Covering topics as diverse as live streaming AI poetry online literature poetry memes cyberpunk fiction virtual art exhibitions cooking videos censorship and viral translations the collection as a whole not only engages with a wide range of Chinese new media phenomena but also demonstrates their relevance to our understanding of contemporary digital culture

Love Of A Samurai Beth A. Freely, 2025-06-24

In a land of falling blossoms and rising steel one woman's fate is rewritten by the edge of a sword and the quiet heart of a warrior Helena Montclair never imagined her father's final diplomatic journey would end in blood Or that she a stranger to sword and soil would be the only one left alive Rescued by samurai and taken to a mountain village untouched by time Helena is placed under the watchful care of Mariko wise elder healer and widow to a great warrior But not everyone welcomes her Least of all Ujio Takahashi the Daimyo's hatamoto whose loyalty to tradition runs deeper than any blade Ordered to train the foreign girl in the ways of defense Ujio is prepared for disobedience What he finds instead is a flame that refuses to go out a spirit unbowed by grief and a woman who speaks his language with startling fluency and grace As cherry blossoms bloom and enemies gather beyond the mountains Helena and Ujio find themselves caught between honor and longing duty and desire What begins in silence grows into something neither of them can name In a world on the brink of change love may be the most dangerous rebellion of all

Building Bridges between Cultures in Ian McDonald's Science Fiction

Jerome Winter, 2025-09-18 This book is a career long retrospective of the Irish writer Ian McDonald and his complex compelling representation of our contemporary global condition Ian McDonald is a celebrated writer within the science fiction community whose rich and urgent body of works span over a quarter of a century The author claims McDonald's work functions as vital troubling allegories which both refuse the Orientalist euphemizing of colonial atrocities while still at the same time envisioning a transformative global alterity seeking an ethical and political embrace of systematically silenced subaltern voices in the neoliberal world system The book follows McDonald as the globe trotting writer travels from Ireland to Kenya to India to Brazil to Turkey to a proliferating multiverse and beyond Along the way the author analyzes McDonald's science fiction as a salient contribution to the flourishing cosmopolitan literature of postcolonial developing nations at the crossroads of the global imaginary

Doomsday Nigel Cawthorne, 2025-09-01

Just how near is the end of the world Behind the veil of safety of everyday life in the West lurks the sinister reality of a chaotic universe Doomsday reveals the very real threats posed to modern civilisation as the 21st century progresses and asks the question Is humanity on the path to destruction War famine plague global warming nuclear meltdown all have the potential to extinguish life on Earth forever

While our technology can help us overcome these perils that same technology may itself contain the seeds of catastrophe In fifty compelling essays including entries on mega tsunamis a new ice age a giant meteor strike nuclear holocaust and nanotechnology running amok Doomsday depicts the possible scenarios of annihilation to come and assesses our chances of survival if any

Masculinity in Contemporary Science Fiction by Men Sara Martín, 2025-05-30 Masculinity in Contemporary Science Fiction by Men No Plans for the Future is the first comprehensive study of the self representation of men in SF novels published in the twenty first century by male authors Exploring a broad selection of writers and works the fourteen chapters present a panoramic overview of men s contributions to current SF and explore their slow but noticeable progress in the representation of gender The impact of feminism and gender studies and the demands of readers have profoundly transformed men s SF which now presents far more caring and vulnerable male characters The old stereotypes are being replaced by a collective reflection on how men and masculinity are changing though the lack of a common agenda results in novels that while exciting and often challenging sometimes miss the chance to imagine a better anti patriarchal pro feminist future for men and for all human beings The authors analysed include Robert Charles Wilson Geoff Ryman Samuel R Delany Richard K Morgan John Scalzi Iain M Banks Ernest Cline James S A Corey Colson Whitehead Andy Weir Daniel H Wilson Ian McDonald Yoon Ha Lee Tade Thompson Neal Stephenson and Kim Stanley Robinson
