The Levant Express Micheline R. Ishay,2019-08-20 A surprisingly hopeful assessment of the prospects for human rights in the Middle East and a blueprint for advancing them The enormous sense of optimism unleashed by the Arab Spring in 2011 soon gave way to widespread suffering and despair Of the many popular uprisings against autocratic regimes Tunisia s now stands alone as a beacon of hope for sustainable human rights progress Libya is a failed state Egypt returned to military dictatorship the Gulf States suppressed popular protests and tightened control and Syria and Yemen are ravaged by civil war Challenging the widely shared pessimism among regional experts Micheline Ishay charts bold and realistic pathways for human rights in a region beset by political repression economic distress sectarian conflict a refugee crisis and violence against women With due attention to how patterns of revolution and counterrevolution play out in different societies and historical contexts Ishay reveals the progressive potential of subterranean human rights forces and offers strategies for transforming current realities in the Middle East

Children's Picture Books and Contemporary Egyptian Society

Yasmine Motawy,2025-02-25 A social and political history of two decades of Egyptian neoliberalism through children s picture books published in Egypt in the post 2000 era Children s picture books are some of the most transparently ideological materials available to parents and educators and as cultural objects they are an expression of the zeitgeist of a particular era They reveal much about the hopes values and aspirations of the society that produces them as well as that society s vision of its place in the wider world at large Children s Picture Books and Contemporary Egyptian Society examines a new wave of Egyptian picture books that was published in the current century to see how these books responded to larger societal trends and transformations in Egypt as well as to explore the ideologies that lie behind them Yasmine Motawy argues that a host of factors including the growth of gated communities and international schooling the proliferation of lucrative literary awards returning Gulf migrants television dramas and nationwide reading advocacy initiatives helped give rise to a new kind of children s picture book in Egypt Motawy focuses on three clusters of selected picture books to investigate the extent to which these books reproduce hegemonic discourses or alternatively open up new horizons of childhood agency and societal transformation The first cluster includes books that directly socialize the child by showing them how things are done in both the domestic sphere and the increasing globalized spaces that children frequent with their families The second cluster aims at reframing cultural notions around femininity through the retelling of folk and fairy tales while the third cluster addresses children s abilities to assess the impact of their actions on their environment and invites them to examine their personal suitability to positions of power and stewardship
