Taxation in the Netherlands Gerrit te Spenke, Mark de Vries, 2011-01-01 The book summarizes the main features of the Netherlands tax system It provides foreign investors and business people with basic information on the tax implications of their business plans in the Netherlands The various chapters deal with the General Tax Act individual income tax corporate income tax wage tax the social security system dividend withholding tax VAT estate tax gift tax transfer tax insurance tax international and European tax law

Capital Income Taxation in the Netherlands Alexander Klemm, Mr. Shafik Hebous, 2021-05-20 This paper looks at capital income taxation in the Netherlands from an international and domestic perspective The Netherlands is a major conduit country for FDI Recent reforms taken by the Dutch authorities as well as public statements represent a strong move to address international tax avoidance but it is too early to be able to detect the impact in the data and measuring tax avoidance even in the past is fraught with difficulties Domestically the unique system which for many financial assets effectively taxes wealth rather than capital income leads to inequities and distortions Owner occupied housing is strongly tax favored and in many cases effectively subsidized Various reforms not necessarily of a fundamental nature would improve efficiency and equity

UCITS and Taxation Raymond Adema, Raymond P. C. Adema, 2009-01-01 This book examines the taxation of Undertakings for the Collective Investment in Transferable Securities UCITS in Austria Germany the Netherlands and the United Kingdom It analyses the tax consequences of the cross border trade in units of UCITS for unitholders residing in the countries examined It also features recommendations to remove the tax advantages and disadvantages that occur in cross border trading planning with holding companies located in Europe Asia of the Caribbean It analyses the problem of repatriating U S profits from Europe going far beyond the routing of income via different companies Instead the approach includes an analysis of the interdependencies between international tax competition holding company regimes and tax planning concepts in order to establish a basis for tax planning measures regardless of the fast changing legal environment for holding companies in the different countries

Procedural Rules in Tax Law in the Context of European Union and Domestic Law Michael Lang, 2010-01-01

EUCOTAX European Universities Cooperating on TAXes is a network of tax institutes currently consisting of eleven universities WU Vienna University of Economics and Business in Austria Katholieke Universiteit Leuven in Belgium Corvinus University of Budapest Hungary Universite Paris I Pantheon Sorbonne in France Universitat Osnabruck in Germany Libera Universita Internazionale di Studi Sociali in Rome and Universita degli Studi di Bologna for the research part in Italy Fiscaal Instituut Tilburg at Tilburg University in the Netherlands Universidad de Barcelona in Spain Uppsala University in Sweden Queen Mary and Westfield College at the University of London in the United Kingdom and Georgetown University in Washington DC United States of America This network aims at initiating and coordinating both comparative education in taxation through the organisation of activities such as winter courses and guest lectures and comparative research in the field by means of joint research projects international conferences and exchange of researchers between various countries

European Union law barely deals with procedural questions even though they are essential for proper implementation of European Union law The European Court of Justice has developed procedural principles in its rulings which also affect proceedings before national authorities This is due to the fact that the principle of procedural autonomy of the Member States finds its limits where European Union law might be infringed Therefore domestic procedural principles and rules of the EU countries need to be interpreted in the context of European Union law requirements This timely work seeks to identify the differences between the domestic procedural rules and principles of an array of EU and non EU countries and analyse them in the context of European Union law requirements Specific attention is paid to the impact of State aid rules on procedural law in tax matters on constitutional law requirements as well as tax treaty law issues Since customs law is already harmonized in the form of the Community Customs Code it serves as a starting point to examine the extent to which harmonized procedural law is possible

Harmonized procedural law is also discussed in the context of a possible future Common Consolidated Corporate Tax Base as well as an EU tax levied at the European Union level

Taxation in the Netherlands Gerrit te Spenke, 1995 This unique book summarizes the main features of The Netherlands tax system Although the author has tried to give a general overview the main purpose of the book is to provide foreign investors and business people with basic information on the tax implications of their business plans in the Netherlands The book deals with the most important aspects of income and corporate income tax Special attention is paid to the participation exemption applicable under this latter tax The author also looks at two other taxes almost every investor will be confronted with such as taxation is a topic of great relevance in practice Yet up to now this area of tax law has been generally neglected by researchers The aim of this book is to close this gap in tax law research and to analyse the provisions of international agreements and similar legal instruments under international law which provide for a special domestic law tax treatment for specific individuals and international organizations Twenty four national reports from countries across the globe have been compiled and are published in this volume Seventy experts including the authors of the national reports convened for a joint conference on Tax Rules in Non Tax Agreements in Rust Austria from 7 9 July 2011 The national reports focus on the interaction of tax rules in non tax agreements with the corresponding tax treaty rules Moreover possible matters of dispute regarding the justification of these tax rules within the legal and political frameworks of the different states are given much attention The objective of this book is to show the relevance of tax rules in non tax agreements to highlight problematic issues and to encourage future research in this important field of tax law National Tax Policy in Europe Krister Andersson,Eva Eberhartinger,Lars Oxelheim,2007-09-04 European taxes have long been debated for their potential role as barriers to increased investment and welfare The discussion has often circulated around the size of the tax bases and the magnitude of the tax rate In this book we argue that in the taxation context the European Union EU is at a cross road facing strong forces pushing it into two polar positions One of these is the scenario with all welfare provided by the national regime and financed by taxes collected entirely by national authorities The other extreme is the situation where all welfare is fered at an EU level financed entirely by taxes collected at that level The two forces pressing the tax situation into one of these two poles are spelt tax compe tion and welfare arbitrage The research question addressed in this book covers the existence of a potential steady state in between these to poles Our basic pothesis is that their might be such a steady state due to the immobility of some tax bases and where the taxation of these bases have no externalities affecting vestment We argue that the very complex tax structures of Europe and the tax certainty facing investors in Europe need to be addressed in a comprehensive way Taxation in the Netherlands Gerrit te Spenke,1985-01-01 Income tax conventions United States. Congress. Joint Committee on Internal Revenue Taxation,1962 The principle of non-discrimination in international and European tax law Niels Bammens,2012 The principle of non discrimination plays a vital role in international and European tax law This dissertation analyses the interpretation given to that principle in tax treaty practice and in the direct tax case law of the Court of Justice of the European Union ECJ on the fundamental freedoms The objective of this analysis is twofold to give a clear and thorough overview of both standards and to determine whether they share a common underlying principle of non discrimination In order to achieve these objectives a comprehensive selection of case law is discussed from the perspective of the two constitutive elements of discrimination comparability and the existence of different treatment Moreover attention is drawn to the question whether a domestic measure that is found to be discriminatory may nevertheless be justified on the basis of reasons of public interest Finally the possible interplay between both standards is addressed Legislative History of United States Tax Conventions: Income tax conventions, Secs. 1-11 ,1962
