Steven Holl Jordi Safont-Tria, Sanford Kwinter, Steven Holl, 2012 Following Written in Water 2002 this is the second publication devoted to Steven Holl's legendary watercolors Four hundred watercolors represent the creative process of this renowned and influential American architect and reveal his highly personal method developed over many years containing preliminary ideas and sketches of all major projects Holl is known for his sculptural architecture and his virtuosic use of light and watercolors are the ideal means to visualize these characteristic aspects of his work At a time of rapidly changing technology in the service of architectural design these watercolors become spectacular examples of a low tech method The results are invariably original works of art The water colors are juxtaposed with photographs of the built architecture and emphasize the crucial aspect of scale OCLC

Merleau-Ponty Patricia M. Locke, Rachel McCann, 2016-01-25 Phenomenology has played a decisive role in the emergence of the discourse of place now indispensable to many disciplines in the humanities and social sciences and the contribution of Merleau Ponty's thought to architectural theory and practice is well established Merleau Ponty Space Place Architecture is a vibrant collection of original essays by twelve eminent philosophers who mine Merleau Ponty's work to consider how we live and create as profoundly spatial beings The resulting collection is essential to philosophers and creative artists as well as those concerned with the pressing ethical issues of our time Each contributor presents a different facet of space place or architecture These essays carve paths from Merleau Ponty to other thinkers such as Irigaray Deleuze Ettinger and Piaget As the first collection devoted specifically to developing Merleau Ponty's contribution to our understanding of place and architecture this book will speak to philosophers interested in the problem of space architectural theorists and a wide range of others in the arts and design community Contributors Nancy Barta Smith Edward S Casey Helen Fielding Lisa Guenther Galen A Johnson Randall Johnson D R Koukal Suzanne Cataldi Laba Patricia M Locke Glen Mazis Rachel McCann David Morris and Dorothea Olkowski
