The Country Flowers Of A Victorian Lady:

The Country Flowers of a Victorian Lady Fanny Robinson, 1999 Hailed by the press as a publishing phenomenon The Country Flowers of a Victorian Lady is a classic work that will change the way we look at flowers forever Mail on Sunday London Over the past 150 years Fanny Robinson's Book of Memory as she called it has been enjoyed as a treasured heirloom by her family Now for the first time her beautiful work arguably the most exquisite collection of Victorian flower paintings in existence can be appreciated by all Fanny's exceptional book combines elegant watercolors with evocative poetry that is finely illuminated in the manner of a medieval Book of Hours Using the symbolic Language of Flowers she invests each flower grouping with subtle and often highly romantic meanings indeed it is thought that the volume was intended as a lasting tribute to a lost lover In her fascinating commentary on the paintings Gill Saunders a senior curator in the Department of Prints Drawings and Paintings at the Victoria and Albert Museum London explains the intriguing floral symbolism and takes the reader on a delightful journey into Fanny Robinson's leisured and cultivated world of flower pen and brush Country Flowers of a Victorian Lady Calendar teNeues Publishing Company, 2001-07-01 House & Garden, 1999 Books Magazine, 1998 Collections Vol 14 N4 Juilee Decker, Collections, 2019-02-05 This issue of the journal and its sister 14 03 bring together sixteen contributions from scholars from a variety of perspectives around the topic of Women Collections The Trade Marks Journal, 2000-07-05 La renaissance féerique à l'ère victorienne Anne Chassagnol, 2010 Entre 1840 et 1870 la f e longtemps bannie du territoire britannique s impose dans bien des domaines notamment dans le conte et dans la peinture La plupart des grands romanciers victoriens comme Charles Dickens William M Thackeray ou encore John Ruskin publient des contes de f es Le motif de la renaissance voire de la naissance para t commun de nombreuses uvres Cette tude comparative a pour but d expliquer les modalit s de ce retour f erique plus tardif que dans les autres pays n anmoins si caract ristique de la culture britannique Cette th se vise mettre en lumi re toute l originalit d une telle renaissance qui semble marqu e par un paradoxe d une part la f erie victorienne voque avec nostalgie un ge d or perdu rural et pr industriel et dans le m me temps elle se nourrit des multiples d couvertes scientifiques de l poque comme la biochimie la g ologie la m decine la botanique ou encore l entomologie Loin d tre coup e du monde dans lequel elle merge la f erie s en inspire et s en rapproche plus que jamais comme si elle tait devenue le dernier domaine pouvant encore chapper aux quations scientifiques Le conte est souvent intimement li la peinture nombreux sont les peintres qui s inspirent de l uvre de Shakespeare Parall lement les contes pr sentent une v ritable dimension picturale La repr sentation de la f e oscille entre visibilit et invisibilit lisibilit et illisibilit lui permettant de s adresser plusieurs types de lecteurs ou de spectateurs parfois aux fronti res de l rotisme Gardeners, Gurus and Grubs George M. then gardens of varying types and ambition have been popular throughout the ages Whether ornamental patches surrounding wild cottages container gardens blooming over unforgiving concrete or those turned over for growing produce gardens exist in all shapes and sizes in all manner of styles Today we benefit from centuries of development be it in the cultivation of desirable blossom or larger fruits in the technology to keep weeds and lawn at bay or even in the visionaries who tore up rulebooks and cultivated pure creativity in their green spaces George Drower takes fifty objects that have helped create the gardening scene we know today and explores the history outside spaces in a truly unique fashion With stunning botanical and archive images this lavish volume is essential for garden lovers A Victorian Lady's Album Shannon, Kate, Stanley, Della, 1994 Kate Shannon was the 18 year old daughter of a judge living in the prosperous port city of Halifax She describes her daily life and confides her private thoughts in the diary she kept for the year 1892 Winter skating parties at homes theatre and concerts long walks in the park picnics Halloween family gatherings Christmas festivities Kate records the events of her life The highlight of her year is a long summertime visit to Boston She also writes frankly and sensitively about her feelings and her relationships with friends and family In this book the full text of Kate's diary is accompanied by a wide collection of visual material Hand tinted postcards paintings drawings newspaper ads book covers and illustrations complement Kate's picture of Victorian life These visuals have all been chosen from Kate's world and include sketches she drew in her diary Tragically at the age of 22 Kate died of consumption Her family treasured her diary and it was later placed with the family's papers in the Public Archives of Nova Scotia where its editor Delia Stanley found it The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2006 Women Poets in the Victorian Era Fabienne Moine, 2016-03-09 Examining the place of nature in Victorian women's poetry Fabienne Moine explores the work of canonical and long neglected women poets to show the myriad connections between women and nature during the period At the same time she challenges essentialist discourses that assume innate affinities between women and the natural world Rather Moine shows Victorian women poets mobilised these alliances to defend common interests and express their engagement with social issues While well known poets such as Elizabeth Barrett Browning and Christina Rossetti are well represented in Moine's study she pays particular attention to lesser known writers such as Mary Howitt or Eliza Cook who were popular during their lifetimes or Edith Nesbit whose verse has received scant critical attention so far She also brings to the fore the poetry of many non professional poets Looking to their immediate cultural environments for inspiration these women reconstructed the natural world in poems that raise questions about the validity and the scope of representations of nature ultimately questioning or undermining social practices that mould and often fossilise cultural identities Women, Literature, and the Domesticated Landscape Judith W. Page, Elise L. Smith, 2011-01-27 An interdisciplinary study of the domesticated or home landscape as it shapes women's lives and their ways of writing The Language of Flowers Beverly Seaton, 2012-10-10 The author traces the phenomenon of ascribing sentimental meaning to floral imagery from its beginnings in Napoleonic France through its later transformations in England and America At the heart of the book is a depiction of what the three most important flower books from each of the countries divulge about the period and the respective cultures Seaton shows that the language of flowers was not a single and universally understood correlation of flowers to meanings that men and women used to communicate in matters of love and romance The language differs from book to book country to country To place the language of flowers in social and literary perspective the author examines the nineteenth century uses of flowers in everyday life and in ceremonies and rituals and provides a brief history of floral symbolism She also discusses the sentimental flower book a genre especially intended for female readers Two especially valuable features of the book are its table of correlations of flowers and their meanings from different sourcebooks and its complete bibliography of language of flower titles This book will appeal not only to scholars in Victorian studies and women s studies but also to art historians book collectors museum curators historians of horticulture and anyone interested in nineteenth century popular culture Book Review Index ,2003 Vols 8 10 of the 1965 1984 master cumulation constitute a title index British Victorian Women's Periodicals K.
