Wreford,2008-05-01 In the current model of health dispensation in South Africa there are two major paradigms the spirit inspired tradition of izangoma sinyanga and biomedicine These operate at best in parallel but more often than not are at odds with one another This book based on the author s personal experience as a practitioner of traditional African medicine considers the effects of the absence of spirit in biomedicine on collaborative relationships Given the unprecedented challenge of the HIV AIDS epidemic in the country the author suggests that more cooperation is vital Taking a critical look at the role of anthropology in this endeavor she proposes the development of a language of spirit by means of which the spirit inspired aetiology of izangoma sinyanga may be made comprehensible to academic scientists and applicable to medical interventions The author discusses white izangoma in the context of current debates on healing and hybridity and insists that there exists a powerful role for izangoma in the realm of societal healing Above all the book constitutes a start in what the author hopes will develop into an ongoing intellectual conversation between traditional African healing academe and biomedicine in South Africa Physical Media in Spiritual Manifestations George Whitefield Samson,1869 WITCHCRAFT MODERN DAY

Robert E. Butts,2013-03-09 Robert E Butts 1928 1997 was a philosopher and historian of science whose central concerns were the distinction between the rational and the irrational He viewed scientific rationality as our major defence against the various conditions that encourage witch hunts and similar outbursts of irrationality with all their attendant pain and terror Butts saw himself as a pragmatic realist combining what he took to be the best aspects of logical empiricism with a historically informed pragmatism deeply appreciative of the methods of science trying to describe a kind of rationality essential in the struggle to preserve human values This volume gathers previously unpublished essays and lectures with some previously published thematically related essays It includes essays and lectures on philosophical aspects of the European witch hunt on scientific rationality and methodology and on the relationships between science and philosophy exhibited in the writings of such historically significant figures as Leibniz D Alembert Hume Kant Carnap and Kuhn

The Maternal Imagination of Film and Film Theory Lauren Bliss, 2020-09-03 This book challenges common sense understandings of the unconscious effects of cinema and visual culture It explores the castrating power of the early modern witch and the historical belief that pregnant women could manipulate and distort body image as figurative analogies for feminist theories of objectification and the male gaze Through developing this history as an impure but lively analogy this book serves as a provocation against the dominant imagining of objectification It offers innovative analyses of a wide ranging selection of films and topics including Joyce Wieland's Water Sark 1964 and its resonance with the works of John Cage and Stan Brakhage the documentary Histoires d'A History of Abortion 1973 which contributed to the successful legalisation of abortion in France the Hong Kong horror film Dumplings Jiaozi 2004 where foetal cannibalism serves up an image of censorship and the dual productions The Book of Mary Le livre de Marie and Hail Mary Je vous salue Marie 1985 by Anne Marie Mi ville and Jean Luc Godard that figure a self reproducing virgin who hears herself while remaining a virgin unseen
