No Excuses Abigail Thernstrom, Stephan Thernstrom, 2004-10 The racial gap in academic performance between whites and Asians on the one hand and Latinos and blacks on the other hand is America's most urgent educational problem It is also the central civil rights issue of our time say Abigail and Stephan Thernstrom Unequal skills and knowledge are the main sources of ongoing racial inequality and racial inequality is America's great unfinished business A wide and tragic gap in learning is evident in affluent suburbs as well as inner cities But great schools are scattered across the country as described in inspiring detail by the Thernstroms These schools are putting even the most highly disadvantaged children on the American ladder of economic opportunity There are no good excuses for the perpetuation of long standing inequalities the Thernstroms argue eloquently The problem can be solved but conventional strategies will not work Fundamental educational reform is needed Carefully researched accessibly written and powerfully persuasive this book offers both a close analysis of the current landscape and a blueprint for essential and overdue change

Black Church Studies Stacey M. Floyd-Thomas, 2007 Religious Studies Over the last thirty years African American voices and perspectives have become essential to the study of the various theological disciplines Writing out of their particular position in the North American context African American thinkers have contributed significantly to biblical studies theology church history ethics sociology of religion homiletics pastoral care and a number of other fields Frequently the work of these African American scholars is brought together in the seminary curriculum under the rubric of the black church studies class Drawing on these several disciplines the black church studies class seeks to give an account of the broad meaning of Christian faith in the African American experience Up to now however there has not been a single comprehensive textbook designed to meet the needs of students and instructors in these classes Black Church Studies An Introduction will meet that need Drawing on the work of specialists in several fields it introduces all of the core theological disciplines from an African American standpoint from African American biblical interpretation to womanist theology and and ethics to sociological understandings of the life of African American churches It will become an indispensable resource for all those preparing to serve in African American congregations or to understand African American contributions to the study of Christian faith Looks at the diverse definitions and functions of the Black Church as well as the ways in which race class religion and gender inform its evolution Provides a comprehensive view of the contributions of African American Scholarship to the current theological discussion Written by scholars with broad expertise in a number of subject areas and disciplines Will enable the reader to relate the work of African American theological scholars to the tasks of preaching teaching and leading in local congregations Will provide the reader the most comprehensive understanding of African American theological scholarship available in one volume Stacey Floyd Thomas Brite Divinity School Juan Floyd Thomas Texas Christian University Carol B Duncan Wilfrid Laurier University Stephen G Ray Jr Lutheran Theological Seminary Philadelphia Nancy Lynne Westfield Drew University Theology Theology and Doctrine Contemporary Theology
