

FASHION

Style And Difference:

Style Differences in Cognition, Learning, and Management Stephen Rayner, Eva Cools, 2012-12-06 This book aims to mark fifteen years of contributions to the field of style research in cognition and learning presented at the annual conference of the European Learning Styles Information Network The style field is a multidisciplinary global community made up of researchers in several domains of knowledge including education psychology business computer science information systems management human resources and other related fields The book will be relevant for readers who are interested in differences in thinking and learning covering a wide range of style related themes with appeal to readers seeking an international and interdisciplinary perspective Interested practitioners will include professionals working in the areas of HR Management Organizational Learning Business Management and all phases of Education The application of style differences for example impacts widely upon work and human performance in areas of policy making team management and project development sports social agency and medicine New or alternative research paradigms facilitating revision and consensus in the field of style differences are presented The aim of integrating research and practice is developed to achieve consensual theory for style differences in human performance Style Differences in Performance is a timely and field defining volume that will change the way academics and practitioners across international and disciplinary boundaries think and talk about the field of learning style and its implications for human achievement

Style Nikolas Coupland, 2007-08-09 Style refers to ways of speaking how speakers use the resource of language variation to make meaning in social encounters This 2007 book develops a coherent theoretical approach to style in sociolinguistics illustrated with copious examples It explains how speakers project different social identities and create different social relationships through their style choices and how speech style and social context inter relate Style therefore refers to the wide range of strategic actions and performances that speakers engage in to construct themselves and their social lives Coupland draws on and integrates a wide variety of contemporary sociolinguistic research as well as his own extensive research in this field The emphasis is on how social meanings are made locally in specific relationships genres groups and cultures and on studying language variation as part of the analysis of spoken discourse

The Muslim Difference Youshaa Patel, 2022-11-01 A sweeping history of Muslim identity from its origins in late antiquity to the present How did Muslims across time and place define the line between themselves and their neighbors Youshaa Patel explores why the Prophet Muhammad first advised his followers to emulate Christians and Jews but then allegedly reversed course urging them to be different He details how subsequent generations of Muslim scholars canonized the Prophet's admonition into an influential doctrine against imitation that enjoined ordinary believers to embody and display their religious difference in public life Tracing this Islamic discourse from its origins in Arabia to Mamluk and Ottoman Damascus colonial Egypt and beyond this sweeping intellectual and social history offers a panoramic view of Muslim identity revealing unexpected intersections between religion and other markers of difference across ethnicity gender and status Patel illustrates that contemporary debates in the West over visible expressions of Islam from headscarves and beards to minarets and mosques are just the latest iterations in a long history of how small differences have defined Muslim interreligious encounters

Stress and Anxiety. Theory, practice and measurement Kathleen A. Moore, Petra Buchwald, 2020-09-20 The selection of peer reviewed chapters in this edition of Stress and Anxiety addresses three major areas of topical interest Theory practice and measurement Authors ask What is the meaning of stress and offer a reconceptualization of the topic They take us on a journey across decades of strategies we use to cope with stress Recommendations for practice based on theory form a significant part of this edition A focus on children and practice implications at home and in the school are presented All papers presented in this volume are not only relevant to theory and understanding factors which influence behaviour but most importantly there are significant implications for practice and measurement
