1. Introduction: The meaning of work

The meaning of work for individuals is changing and has the following characteristics:

1.1 Self-regulated career self-management, career agility, personal growth and development, and an entrepreneurial mindset toward employment creation

1.2 Business and digital savvy in creating, marketing, and selling niche products and services with real-time information at lower entry costs on digital platforms

1.3 Life-long learning, agency, upskilling, agility, and flexibility in adapting to change and technology

1.4 Work-life Balance and Integration in high-tech Living Work Community Systems

1.5 Autonomy, control, and flexibility in independent, self-directed forms of work

1.6 Value-driven product development and service delivery focused on the human experience – “Am I using my strengths and capabilities?”; “Am I making a difference?”; “Do I add value?”

1.7 Being able to move beyond what one wants to “be” to what one wants and can “do” for society so one can find meaningful ways to develop and grow personal strengths and capabilities that add value regardless of access to particular jobs (Schreuder & Coetzee, 2020).
