Narratives of Hope and Despair Johanna M. Wagner, Melanie Duckworth, Deanna Benjamin, 2025-10-14. In narratives of literature and cultural production, hope and despair remain fundamental in exploring our world. In recent years, political polarization, the Covid pandemic, global warming, and new and ongoing wars have contributed to global crises to which despair is an understandable response. Yet hope is continually sought and proclaimed. By examining tropes of ruin and regeneration in a wide selection of narratives, including memoir, graphic narratives, fiction, film, art, radio plays, culture, rhetoric, and discourse, the book uncovers resonances between them. The anthology moves from the personal to the collective, addressing individual matters of the body and the mind, societal visions of utopia and dystopia, and finally hope and despair for the earth itself in representations of apocalypse and the Anthropocene. This structure, alongside the interdisciplinary nature of the project, maps dynamic international perspectives in which hope and despair flow across and through personal, social, and earthly concerns.

Cold War Stories Andrew Hammond, 2017-08-28. This book is the first comprehensive study of mainstream British dystopian fiction and the Cold War. Drawing on over 200 novels and collections of short stories, the monograph explores the ways in which dystopian texts charted the lived experiences of the period, offering an extended analysis of authors' concerns about the geopolitical present and anxieties about the national future. Amongst the topics addressed are the processes of Cold War autocracy, militarism, propaganda, intelligence, nuclear technologies, the decline of Britain's standing in global politics, and the reduced status of intellectual culture in Cold War Britain. Although the focus is on dystopianism in the work of mainstream authors including George Orwell, Doris Lessing, J.G. Ballard, Angela Carter, and Anthony Burgess, a number of science fiction novels are also discussed, making the book relevant to a wide range of researchers and students of twentieth-century British literature.

Worlds Ending. Ending Worlds Jenny Stümer, Michael Dunn, 2023-12-04. The notion of apocalypse is an age-old concept which has gained renewed interest in popular and scholarly discourse. The book highlights the versatile explications of apocalypse today, demonstrating that apocalyptic transformations, the various encounters with anthropogenic climate change, nuclear violence, polarized politics, colonial assault, and capitalist extractivism, navigate a range of interdisciplinary views on the present moment. Moving from old worlds to new worlds, from world-ending experiences to apocalyptic imaginaries, and finally from authoritarianism to activism and advocacy, the contributions begin to map the emerging field of Apocalyptic and Post-Apocalyptic Studies. Foregrounding the myriad ways in which collective imaginations of apocalypse underpin ethical, political, and sometimes individual experience, the authors provide key points of reference for understanding old and new.
