Explorations in Urban Practice Katja Aßmann, Markus Bader, Rosario Talevi, raumlaborberlin, Urbane Künste Ruhr, 2017-10-26 Both a learning platform and a pedagogical experiment Urban School Ruhr is built upon the foundational belief that experts and amateurs can together build a space of critical exchange and knowledge transfer USR prioritises exchange and dialogue that is not necessarily attached to specific outcomes results or interventions in built reality instead understanding conversation as the first step to co producing cities Explorations in Urban Practice the first edition in the Urban School Ruhr Series draws from and reflects upon USR's experiences to date whilst also looking to the future of urban practice in contemporary cities The book presents the reader with key current questions in the field how can we learn city making How should we understand the political concept of commoning for this purpose And how can we discuss intervention as a strategy for enacting urban change

The Media War on Black Male Youth in Urban Education

Darius Prier, 2017-03-27 News media film and the music industry have become powerful sources of misrepresentation of Black male life in the social imagination of white society The pedagogy of popular culture has important implications for educators and youth advocates who desire to challenge the myths and distortions that ultimately harm youth This volume raises awareness of the media war on Black male youth in popular culture and the impact this image battle has on the discriminatory treatment of the population in urban educational settings Citing the recent controversial deaths of Trayvon Martin and Jordan Davis the portrayal of black males in contemporary films and the locus of hip hop masculinities this volume offers a unique framework for analyzing how contemporary image making practices affect Black male youth in urban education It also offers ethical considerations for educators in their critique consumption and reading of Black male subjectivity in media and provides avenues for practical applications of critical media literacy on the ground
