The contributors to this volume apply recent theoretical approaches ranging from the Mozart Effect in cognitive psychology through stylistics and conceptual metaphor to transtextuality in the analysis of a range of songs, song lyrics, poetry, ekphrastic prose, and instrumental music. Topics explored here include opera and pop music from around the world, Australian Aboriginal oral poetry, political instrumentalization, and censorship of song lyrics and teaching foreign language using songs.

Songwriting is a 21st Century curricular offering that considers who we are as a society, our desires, our goals, our passions. Most often songwriting occurs in Modern Band classes that are beginning to pop up all around North America and many parts of the world.
