

A movie poster for 'Alien Invasion'. The top half features a large, dark, metallic alien head with a menacing, ribbed texture, its mouth open as if screaming or roaring. Below the head, a man with long, light-colored hair is shown in a state of intense distress, his face contorted in a scream with his eyes closed and hands clutching his head. The background is a misty, dark landscape with silhouettes of trees and a fence. The overall tone is dark and ominous.

Ferguson demonstrates how Darwinian accounts of primitive and animal language were co-opted into wider cultural debates about the apparent brutality of popular fiction and shows how popular novelists used their fantastic narratives to radically reformulate the relationships among language, thought and progress that underwrote much of the contemporary prejudice against mass literary taste.
