The Science of Homeschooling Kristy Crandall,2023-04-01 There have been a lot of narratives spun about homeschooling over the years Many of them center around the inability of parents to effectively teach their children without some kind of permanent emotional damage being done However studies on the subject do not support the stories that have been told This book is perhaps the first one ever to examine the research on academic outcomes for students who are taught in public school versus at home Written for new and prospective homeschoolers based on questions from real parents this book provides resources to answer those hard questions and empower parents to teach their own children in that is what they feel called to do This book also simplifies homeschooling in a way that makes it seem manageable and provides resources to help parents get started on their homeschool journey This book is not meant to be a deep dive into the nitty gritty of what homeschooling can be but opens the door to the possibilities of what it has to offer regardless of a family s unique situation This book is meant to be a quick start guide for parents so they can have confidence in their decisions and a direction to go as they begin to figure out how to help their families thrive Resources in Education ,2001-04 Christian Home Educators' Curriculum Manual Cathy Duffy,1995 The premiere guide for choosing homeschool curriculum For beginners or veterans Cathy helps you wade through the curriculum jungle to choose what s right for each of your children Reviews of hundreds of books games videos computer programs parent helps and much much more for all subjects Learning styles Cathy helps you determine each child s learning style then choose methods and resources that fit each child What your child needs to know what is typically taught at each grade level Which resources allow your children to work independently which work best taught one on one Identifying and dealing with learning disabilities plus a list of consultants for extra help Testing the good and bad of testing different kinds of tests where to get them testing services Addresses phone numbers faxes e mail and web sites for all publishers and distributors How to consolidate your shopping and save shipping costs 100 Top Picks for Homeschool Curriculum Cathy Duffy,2005 A critical volume for the homeschooling community that helps parents make informed choices regarding learning styles and curriculum Homeschooling the Child with Autism Patricia Schetter,Kandis Lighthall,2009-03-30 Homeschooling the Child with Autism This practical highly accessible guide answers parents and professionals questions about teaching children with autism spectrum disorders at home The book helps parents decide whether to homeschool and guides them through the process of beginning and maintaining an effective homeschool program All the essential questions are addressed such as How do you know if homeschooling is right for you and your child Which homeschool program is best for the child s learning style and needs How should a family get started What is the best way to address social behavioral and organizational skills when teaching a child with ASD When should you transition back to a traditional public school setting The book also contains tips and suggestions from real life parents who have successfully homeschooled their children with ASD and includes lists of helpful resources for homeschoolers Praise for Homeschooling the Child with Autism Practical advice and a wealth of resources This book provides a beacon of hope to families struggling with educational options for their child SALLY OZONOFF PH D endowed professor University of California Davis M I N D Institute A must read for parents and teachers who need guidance and encouragement while teaching children with ASD CATHY STENZEL mother of a son with autism
