Stories Aren't Just For Kids Christine Dillon, 2017-10-20 Stories are a God-designed way to impact hearts. In a world increasingly anti-Christian, how can you communicate in a way that slides under listener's defences? How can you leave them hungry for more? But many Christians reject stories as just for kids. Christine Dillon has trained thousands of people in storytelling. 10 myths come up over and over again and they block Christians from using this life-changing ministry tool. MYTH 1: Adults won't listen to stories. MYTH 2: Stories are only for non-literate cultures. MYTH 3: Men won't listen to stories. MYTH 6: Storytelling won't grow mature disciples. MYTH 8: Storytelling will lead to heresy. Using stories from around the world, Dillon tackles each myth and challenges you to master this tool. This book is also available in both forms of written Chinese.

Child Language Acquisition Ben Ambridge, Elena V. M. Lieven, 2011-03-17 Is children's language acquisition based on innate linguistic structures or built from cognitive and communicative skills? This book summarises the major theoretical debates in all of the core domains of child language acquisition research: phonology, word learning, inflectional morphology, syntax, and binding, and includes a complete introduction to the two major contrasting theoretical approaches: generativist and constructivist. For each debate, the predictions of the competing accounts are closely and even-handedly evaluated against the empirical data. The result is an evidence-based review of the central issues in language acquisition research that will constitute a valuable resource for students, teachers, course builders, and researchers alike.
