Callewaert, 2000 Excellent bibliographical work about Allama Muhammad Iqbal in the Arabic scripts Urdu Persian Arabic and so on has been published by the Iqbal Academy Lahore Our publication covers only what appeared in the Roman script English German French Dutch Italian Polish Czech Portuguese Swedish Finnish Turkish and Russian Many books have some kind of bibliographical list and we have tried to include all that material in the present publication With the generous support of the Ministry of Education Government of Pakistan the Iqbal Foundation Europe at the KU Leuven Belgium has endeavoured to combine meticulous and patient work in libraries with the most modern search on internet The result is an impressive tribute to Iqbal and to the research about him 2500 entries the latest entry dated 1998 A Schimmel Even if many superfluous or repetitive articles may have been published a researcher should look at even small contributions they may contain valuable information and rare insights The databank we compiled at the university of Leuven is composed of material taken from published works and from the on line services of the major university libraries From this it appeared that hundreds of scholars and authors have contributed to the immense databank about Iqbal The highest number of contributions is by Annemarie Schimmel S A Vahid and B A Dar followed by A Bausani K A Waheed A J Arberry and so many others The Reconstruction of Religious Thought in Islam Mohammad Iqbal, 2013-05-22 The Reconstruction of Religious Thought in Islam 1930 is Muhammad Iqbal's major philosophic work a series of profound reflections on the perennial conflict among science religion and philosophy culminating in new visions of the unity of human knowledge of the human spirit and of God Iqbal's thought contributed significantly to the establishment of Pakistan to the religious and political ideals of the Iranian Revolution and to the survival of Muslim identity in parts of the former USSR. It now serves as a new bridge between East and West and between Islam and the other Religions of the Book. With a new Introduction by Javed Majeed, this edition of The Reconstruction opens the teachings of Iqbal to the modern Western reader. It will be essential reading for all those interested in Islamic intellectual history, the renewal of Islam in the modern world and political theory of Islam's relationship to the West.

Iqbal Zafar Anjum, 2014-10-13 Allama Mohammad Iqbal, whom Sarojini Naidu called the Poet laureate of Asia, remains a controversial figure in the history of the Indian subcontinent. On the one hand, he is considered the Spiritual Father of Pakistan. On the other, his message of Eastern revivalism places him in the ranks of the twentieth century's major intellectuals. Iqbal's tragedy was that after his death, he was made the national poet of Pakistan and largely ignored in India. In his time, he was lauded as much as Tagore, but today India celebrates Tagore while Iqbal has been banished from her consciousness. This meticulously researched biography will redress that erasure. This is the story of Iqbal's evolution as a poet, philosopher, and politician. While his role in the struggle for India's freedom and the Pakistan movement are well known, not much is known about his personal life. This book highlights some of the least known facets of the poet's life: how did a nationalist poet transform into a poet of Islamic revivalism and global revolution? How did three years in Europe change Iqbal's political and philosophical outlook? Why did he start writing in Persian during his stay in Europe? Why did his first marriage fail, and how did his romantic relationships affect him? What exactly was the poet's role in bringing about Partition? Written with the passion of an ardent devotee, Zafar Anjum's Iqbal answers all of these questions and many more in this carefully told biography.

The Political Philosophy of Muhammad Iqbal Iqbal Singh

Sevea, 2012-06-29 This book reflects upon the political philosophy of Muhammad Iqbal, a towering intellectual figure in South Asian history, revered by many for his poetry and his thought. He lived in India in the twilight years of the British Empire, and apart from a short but significant period studying in the West, he remained in Punjab until his death in 1938. The book studies Iqbal's critique of nationalist ideology and his attempts to chart a path for the development of the nation by liberating it from the centralizing and homogenizing tendencies of the modern state structure. Iqbal frequently clashed with his contemporaries over his view of nationalism as the greatest enemy of Islam. He constructed his own particular interpretation of Islam, forged through an interaction with Muslim thinkers and Western intellectual traditions that was ahead of its time, and since his death, both modernists and Islamists have continued to champion his legacy.

Muslim Enlightened Thought in South Asia Ayesha Jalal, 2024-09-18 Muslim Enlightened Thought in South Asia is an engaging history of the enlightened liberality of modern Muslim poets, philosophers, educationists, novelists, historians, artists, and public intellectuals who drew on a long Muslim intellectual tradition beyond the Western liberalism of empire. Interpreting the pathbreaking contributions of an array of creative Muslim figures, the book challenges the view portraying them as exemplars of an insular and defensive apologetic modernity It highlights a strand of Muslim thought and liberality of mind that has been ignored by scholars obsessed with dire and dour theologians This book questions both the presumptions of historians of liberalism that exclude Muslims from the domain of modern liberal thought and the predilections of those scholars of Islam who lean solely on discovering theological rigidity among ulama It analyzes the forces that have contributed to the narrowing of intellectual space since the late twentieth century and the resilience of expansive and enlightened ideas that have kept candles flickering in the enveloping darkness Foregrounding the enlightened conceptions of Ghalib Sayyid Ahmad Khan Iqbal and Sadequain on faith selfhood history and time and bringing other Muslim thinkers out of the shadows the book offers a nuanced reformulation of the meaning of religion for our challenging times It will be of interest to a wide readership interested in the history of Islam and South Asia
