Street Angel Life Writing:

Street Angel Magie Dominic, 2014-07-24 Magie Dominic's first memoir The Queen of Peace Room was shortlisted for the Canadian Women's Studies Award, ForeWord magazine's Book of the Year Award and the Judy Grahn Award. Told over an eight-day period, the book captures a lifetime of turbulent memories, documenting with skill Dominic's experiences of violence, incest, and rape. But her story wasn't finished. Street Angel opens to the voice of an eleven-year-old Dominic. She's growing up in Newfoundland. Her mother suffers from terrifying nighttime hallucinations. Her father's business is about to collapse. She layers the world she hears on radio and television onto her family, speaking in paratactic prose with a point-blank delivery. She finds relief only in the glamour of Hollywood films and the majesty of Newfoundland's wilderness. Revealing her life through flashbacks, humour, and her signature self-confidence, Dominic takes readers from 1950s Newfoundland to 1960s Pittsburgh, 1970s New York, and the end of the millennium in Toronto. Capturing the long days of childhood, this book questions how important those days are in shaping who we become as we age, and time seems to speed up. With quick brush-stroke chapters, Dominic chronicles sixty years of a complex, secretive family in this story about violence, adolescence, families, and forgiveness.

Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly, 2013-12-04 First published in 2001, Routledge is an imprint of Taylor & Francis, an informal company. Life Writing and Schizophrenia Mary Elene Wood, 2013-09-05 How do you write your life story when readers expect you not to make sense? How do you write a case history that makes sense when faced face-to-face with schizophrenia? Your ability to tell a diagnostic story begins to fall apart. This book examines work in several genres of life writing: autobiography, memoir, case history, autobiographical fiction, focused either on what it means to live with schizophrenia or what it means to understand and treat people who have received that diagnosis. Challenging the romanticized connection between literature and madness, Life Writing and Schizophrenia explores how writers who hear voices and experience delusions write their identities into narrative despite popular and medical representations of schizophrenia as chaos, violence, and incoherence. The study juxtaposes these narratives to case histories by clinicians writing their encounters with those diagnosed with schizophrenia, encounters that call their own narrative authority and coherence into question. Mary Wood is the author of The Writing on the Wall: Women's Autobiography and the Asylum (University of Illinois Press, 1994) and has published articles on autobiography, case history, literature, and psychiatry, and narrative ethics in Narrative, British Journal of Medical Ethics, Journal of Trauma and Dissociation, and American Literary Realism.
