

Strengthening Civil Registration and Vital Statistics Monitoring and Evaluation Systems

PHOTOGRAPH BY MICHAEL KIMANI

Background

In partnership with the National Office of Statistics (NOS), a consortium consisting of the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP), the United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA), and the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) is supporting the Government of Kenya to strengthen its civil registration and vital statistics (CRVS) system. The project aims to improve the accuracy and completeness of the CRVS system, which is essential for monitoring and evaluating development progress.

The project is being implemented in three phases. The first phase focuses on strengthening the legal and policy framework for the CRVS system. The second phase focuses on improving the data collection and management systems. The third phase focuses on strengthening the monitoring and evaluation systems. The project is being implemented in partnership with the Government of Kenya, the NOS, and the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP), the United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA), and the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF).

Key Activities and Outcomes

In partnership with the Government of Kenya, the consortium is working to strengthen the legal and policy framework for the CRVS system. This includes reviewing the existing legal and policy framework and identifying areas for improvement. The consortium is also working to improve the data collection and management systems. This includes developing new data collection tools and improving the data management systems. The consortium is also working to strengthen the monitoring and evaluation systems. This includes developing new monitoring and evaluation tools and improving the data collection and management systems.

Other key activities include the collection of baseline data, the development of a monitoring and evaluation framework, and the implementation of the project activities. The project is expected to be completed by the end of 2023.
