O'Thomas,2023-11-14 Over the course of ten seasons since 2011 the television series American Horror Story AHS created by Ryan Murphy and Brad Falchuk has continued to push the boundaries of the televisual form in new and exciting ways Emerging in a context which has seen a boom in popularity for horror series on television AHS has distinguished itself from its rivals such as The Walking Dead Bates Motel or Penny Dreadful through its diverse strategies and storylines which have seen it explore archetypal narratives of horror culture as well as engage with real historical events Utilising a repertory company model for its casting the show has challenged issues around contemporary politics heteronormativity violence on the screen and disability to name but a few This new collection of essays approaches the AHS anthology series from a variety of critical perspectives within the broader field of television studies and its transections with other disciplines Working with Spirit Jo Thobeka Wreford,2008-05-01 In the current model of health dispensation in South Africa there are two major paradigms the spirit inspired tradition of izangoma sinyanga and biomedicine These operate at best in parallel but more often than not are at odds with one another This book based on the author s personal experience as a practitioner of traditional African medicine considers the effects of the absence of spirit in biomedicine on collaborative relationships Given the unprecedented challenge of the HIV AIDS epidemic in the country the author suggests that more cooperation is vital Taking a critical look at the role of anthropology in this endeavor she proposes the development of a language of spirit by means of which the spirit inspired aetiology of izangoma sinyanga may be made comprehensible to academic scientists and applicable to medical interventions The author discusses white izangoma in the context of current debates on healing and hybridity and insists that there exists a powerful role for izangoma in the realm of societal healing Above all the book constitutes a start in what the author hopes will develop into an ongoing intellectual conversation between traditional African healing academe and biomedicine in South Africa Witches, Scientists, Philosophers: Essays and Lectures Robert E. Butts,2013-03-09 Robert E Butts 1928 1997 was a philosopher and historian of science whose central concerns were the distinction between the rational and the irrational He viewed scientific rationality as our major defence against the various conditions that encourage witch hunts and similar outbursts of irrationality with all their attendant pain and terror Butts saw himself as a pragmatic realist combining what he took to be the best aspects of logical empiricism with a historically informed pragmatism deeply appreciative of the methods of science trying to describe a kind of rationality essential in the struggle to preserve human values This volume gathers previously unpublished essays and lectures with some previously published thematically related essays It includes essays and lectures on philosophical aspects of the European witch hunt on scientific rationality and methodology and on the relationships between science and philosophy exhibited in the writings of such historically significant figures as Leibniz D Alembert Hume Kant Carnap and Kuhn

The Maternal Imagination of Film and Film Theory Lauren Bliss, 2020-09-03 This book challenges common sense understandings of the unconscious effects of cinema and visual culture It explores the castrating power of the early modern witch and the historical belief that pregnant women could manipulate and distort body image as figurative analogies for feminist theories of objectification and the male gaze Through developing this history as an impure but lively analogy this book serves as a provocation against the dominant imagining of objectification It offers innovative analyses of a wide ranging selection of films and topics including Joyce Wieland's Water 1964 and its resonance with the works of John Cage and Stan Brakhage the documentary Histoires d'A A History of Abortion 1973 which contributed to the successful legalisation of abortion in France the Hong Kong horror film Dumplings Jiaozi 2004 where foetal cannibalism serves up an image of censorship and the dual productions The Book of Mary Le livre de Marie and Hail Mary Je vous salue Marie 1985 by Anne Marie Mi ville and Jean Luc Godard that figure a self reproducing virgin who hears herself while remaining a virgin unseen

Waking the Witch Pam Grossman, 2020-10-06 From the podcast host of The Witch Wave and practicing witch Pam Grossman who Vulture has dubbed the Terry Gross of witches comes an exploration of the world's fascination with witches why they have intrigued us for centuries and why they're more relevant now than ever When you think of a witch what do you picture Pointy black hat maybe a broomstick But witches in various guises have been with us for millennia In Waking the Witch Pam Grossman explores the impact of the world's most magical icon From the idea of the femme fatale in league with the devil to the bewitching pop culture archetypes in Sabrina the Teenage Witch and Harry Potter from the spooky ladies in fairy tales to the rise of contemporary witchcraft witches reflect the power and potential of women Part cultural analysis part memoir Waking the Witch traces the author's own journey on the path to witchcraft and how this has helped her find self empowerment and purpose It celebrates witches past present and future and reveals the critical role they have played and will continue to play in the world as we know it Deftly illuminating the past while beckoning us towards the future Waking the Witch has all the makings of a feminist classic Wise relatable and real Pam Grossman is the witch we need for our times Ami McKay author of The Witches of New York The Academy, 1890 Witches, Druids and King Arthur Ronald Hutton, 2006-09-15 In Stations of the Sun and The Triumph of the Moon Ronald Hutton established himself as a leading authority on the history of Paganism His wealth of unusual knowledge complemented by a deep and sympathetic understanding of past and present beliefs that are often dismissed as strange or marginal and an ability to write lucidly and wittily gives his work a unique flavour The essays which make up Witches Druids and King Arthur cover elegantly and entertainingly a wide range of beliefs myths and practices Knowing Fear Jason Colavito, 2007-11-26 Tracing the development of horror entertainment since the late 18th century this study argues that scientific discovery technological progress and knowledge in general have played an unparalleled role in influencing the evolution of horror Throughout its many subgenres biological horror cosmic horror and others and formats film literature comics horror records humanity's uneasy relationship with its own ability to reason understand and learn The text first outlines a loose framework defining several distinct periods in horror development then explores each period sequentially by looking at the scientific and cultural background of the period its expression in horror literature and its expression in horror visual and performing arts The Physical in Spiritualism George Whitefield Samson, 1881 Global Entertainment Media Tanner Mirrlees, 2013 A critical cultural materialist introduction to the study of global entertainment media In Global Entertainment Media Tanner Mirrlees undertakes an analysis of the ownership production distribution marketing exhibition and consumption of global films and television shows with an eye to political economy and cultural studies Among other topics Mirrlees examines Paradigms of global entertainment media such as cultural imperialism and cultural globalization The business of entertainment media the structure of capitalist culture creative industries financiers producers distributors and exhibitors and trends in the global political economy of entertainment media The governance of global entertainment media state and inter state media and cultural policies and regulations that govern the production distribution and exhibition of entertainment media and enable or impede its cross border flow The new international division of cultural labor NICL the cross border production of entertainment by cultural workers in asymmetrically interdependent media capitals and economic and cultural concerns surrounding runaway productions and co productions The economic motivations and textual design features of globally popular entertainment forms such as blockbuster event films TV formats globalized lifestyle brands and synergistic media The cross cultural reception and effects of TV shows and films The World Wide Web digitization and convergence culture "To Daimonion," George Whitefield Samson, 1852 Defining Management Lars Engwall, Matthias Kipping, Behlül Üsdiken, 2016-06-10 Defining Management charts the expansion of management as an idea and practice from a time when it was limited to churches and households to its current ubiquity focusing in particular on the role of business schools consultants and business media in this process How did an entire industry develop around business schools consultants and business media who are now widely considered the authorities regarding best management practice This book shows how these actors on their own and in interaction became taken for granted and gained such definitional power over management and managers expanded across the globe from often modest and not always respected origins and impacted and continue to impact businesses and increasingly the broader economic and social context Building on extant and some new research the book is unique in bringing together issues and actors that have been examined elsewhere separately Any student or professional of management interested in the evolution of their field or the rise of business schools consultants and business media will find this book both novel and thought provoking
