Slaves On Screen Film And Historical Vision:

Slaves on Screen Natalie Zemon Davis, 2011-03-04 People have been experimenting with different ways to write history for 2 500 years yet we have experimented with film in the same way for only a century Noted professor and historian Natalie Zemon Davis consultant for the film The Return of Martin Guerre argues that movies can do much more than recreate exciting events and the external look of the past in costumes and sets Film can show millions of viewers the sentiments experiences and practices of a group a period and a place it can suggest the hidden processes and conflicts of political and family life And film has the potential to show the past accurately wedding the concerns of the historian and the filmmaker To explore the achievements and flaws of historical films in differing traditions Davis uses two themes slavery and women in political power She shows how slave resistance and the memory of slavery are represented through such films as Stanley Kubrick's Spartacus Steven Spielberg's Amistad and Jonathan Demme's Beloved Then she considers the portrayal of queens from John Ford's Mary of Scotland and Shekhar Kapur's Elizabeth to John Madden's Mrs Brown and compares them with the cinematic treatments of Eva Peron and Golda Meir This visionary book encourages readers to consider history films both appreciatively and critically while calling historians and filmmakers to a new collaboration Slavery and Sentiment on the American Stage, 1787-1861

Heather S. Nathans, 2009-03-19 For almost a hundred years before Uncle Tom's Cabin burst on to the scene in 1852 the American theatre struggled to represent the evils of slavery Slavery and Sentiment examines how both black and white Americans used the theatre to fight negative stereotypes of African Americans in the United States

Ancient Worlds in Film and Television Almut-Barbara Renger, Jon Solomon, 2012-11-13 This volume reinvigorates the field of Classical Reception by investigating present day culture society and politics particularly gender gender roles and filmic constructions of masculinity and femininity which shape and are shaped by interacting economic political and ideological practices Films With Legs Véronique Maisier, Rosemary A. Peters, 2011-07-12 Films With Legs Crossing Borders with Foreign Language Films addresses the ways international cinematic traditions both erect borders and blur them or tear them down Each chapter of this book examines real and perceived borders their representations on the screen and their manifestations in filmic texts that can also be cultural documents and political statements The fifteen articles included here discuss films made by twenty four directors with dialogues in nine foreign languages representing cultural aspects from twelve countries and five continents From Algeria to Bulgaria Germany to Israel India to Argentina the films studied in this book have legs that cross many borders and take their audiences on distant journeys Simultaneously these films comment on the ever expanding nature of cinema itself of filmic language and of film as language and discuss how borders are constructed on the screen not just in fences and walls and boundaries but also in dialogue and dialect speech and accent and silence A Companion to the Historical Film

Robert A. Rosenstone, Constantin Parvulescu, 2015-12-02 Broad in scope this interdisciplinary collection of original scholarship on historical film features essays that explore the many facets of this

expanding field and provide a platform for promising avenues of research Offers a unique collection of cutting edge research that questions the intention behind and influence of historical film Essays range in scope from inclusive broad ranging subjects such as political contexts to focused assessments of individual films and auteurs Prefaced with an introductory survey of the field by its two distinguished editors Features interdisciplinary contributions from scholars in the fields of History Film Studies Anthropology and Cultural and Literary Studies Toward the Visualization of History Mark Howard Moss, 2008-01-01 This book discusses the impact of visuals on the study of history by examining visual culture and the future of print providing an analysis of photography film television and computer culture The author shows how the visualization of history can become a driving social and cultural force for change Reframing Italy Bernadette Luciano, Susanna Scarparo, 2013-11-15 In recent years Italian cinema has experienced a quiet revolution the proliferation of films by women But their thought provoking work has not yet received the attention it deserves Reframing Italy fills this gap The book introduces readers to films and documentaries by recognized women directors such as Cristina Comencini Wilma Labate Alina Marazzi Antonietta De Lillo Marina Spada and Francesca Comencini as well as to filmmakers whose work has so far been undeservedly ignored Through a thematically based analysis supported by case studies Luciano and Scarparo argue that Italian women filmmakers while not overtly feminist are producing work that increasingly foregrounds female subjectivity from a variety of social political and cultural positions This book with its accompanying video interviews explores the filmmakers challenging relationship with a highly patriarchal cinema industry The incisive readings of individual films demonstrate how women s rich cinematic production reframes the aesthetic of their cinematic fathers re positions relationships between mothers and daughters functions as a space for remembering women s histories and highlights pressing social issues such as immigration and workplace discrimination This original and timely study makes an invaluable contribution to film studies and to the study of gender and culture in the early twenty first century The Gladiators vs. Spartacus, Volume 2 Abraham Polonsky, 2020-12-21 This publication of Abraham Polonsky s unproduced screenplay for The Gladiators is a tribute to one of Hollywood s premiere post WW II directors and writers whose career was severely impacted by the blacklist His script for The Gladiators survives to remind us that he could and did transform a difficult and complex novel of an ancient slave rebellion into a screenplay worthy of Arthur Koestler s bold fictional vision Through a combination of the ambivalence of its executive producer and star plus bad timing it never went before the cameras This book is published in the hope that The Gladiators will be produced for cinema or television The Story of Rufino João José Reis, Flávio dos Santos Gomes, Marcus J. M. Carvalho, 2019-01-16 A finalist for the Brazilian Book award and winner of the Casa de las America Prize for Brazilian Literature The Story of Rufino Slavery Freedom and Islam in the Black Atlantic was written by three experts in the history of slavery in Brazil and reconstructs the lively biography of Rufino Jose Maria set against the historical context of Brazil and Africa in the nineteenth century 0This book narrates the life of a Yoruba Muslim named
