

□ The basic assumptions of this thought include three major points.

□ Firstly, wise and well informed decisions can be made by a few carefully selected individuals who have been expressly trained to think in terms of the collective good of the state.

□ Secondly, these few individuals, who possess awesome and unchecked power, will not be corrupted by this power.

□ thirdly, once socially optimal decisions have been made, they can be implemented effectively by loyal, well-trained, and obedient bureaucracies.
