Graphic Design, Referenced

Bryony Gomez Palacio, Armin Vit, 2012 From Caslon and Carson from Gutenberg to Greiman from Lascaux to letterpress and from Postmodernism to pixel among other entries this title will provide all the necessary information and visual cues that designers need to know in order to become empowered work efficiently and knowingly and survive in a design conversation with peers

Finding Augusta Heidi Rae Cooley, 2014-03-04 Finding Augusta breaks new ground revising how media studies interpret the relationship between our bodies and technology This is a challenging exploration of how for both good and ill the sudden ubiquity of mobile devices GPS systems haptic technologies and other forms of media alter individuals experience of their bodies and shape the social collective The author succeeds in problematizing the most salient fact of contemporary mobile media technologies namely that they have become like highways and plumbing an infrastructure that regulates habit Audacious in its originality Finding Augusta will be of great interest to art and media scholars alike

Dwell, 2002-06 At Dwell we're staging a minor revolution We think that it's possible to live in a house or apartment by a bold modern architect to own furniture and products that are exceptionally well designed and still be a regular human being We think that good design is an integral part of real life And that real life has been conspicuous by its absence in most design and architecture magazines

Smart Design Philip Breedon, 2012-04-11 Good product designs merge materials technology and hardware into a unified user experience one where the technology recedes into the background and people benefit from the capabilities and experiences available By focusing on functional gain critical awareness and emotive connection even the most multifaceted and complex technology can be made to feel straightforward and become an integral part of daily life Researchers designers and developers must understand how to progress or appropriate the right technical and human knowledge to inform their innovations The 1st International Smart Design conference provides a timely forum and brings together researchers and practitioners to discuss issues identify challenges and future directions and share their R D findings and experiences in the areas of design materials and technology This proceedings of the 1st Smart Design conference held at Nottingham Trent University in November 2011 includes summaries of the talks given on topics ranging from intelligent textiles design to pharmaceutical packaging to the impact of social and emotional factors on design choices with the aim of informing and inspiring future application and development of smart design

Metaphors in Architecture and Urbanism

Andri Gerber, Brent Patterson, 2014-03-15 Architecture and urbanism seem to be weak disciplines constantly struggling for a better understanding of their nature and disciplinary borders The huge amount of metaphors appearing in the discourse of both not only reference to their creative nature but also indicate their weakness and the missing piece strengthening their own understanding a definition of space for architecture and of city for urbanism But using metaphors in this field implies a problem though metaphors achieve to bring opposites together there remains the question how literal they can actually become in order to relate to these subjects properly In this volume several authors from various fields using different approaches discuss this question
