Opposing Viewpoints in American History William Dudley, 1996 Vol 1 from colonial times to reconstruction Vol 2 from reconstruction to present A Third Great Disappointment for the Remnant Canute R. Birch, 2012 Do you remember singing Jesus Loves the Little Children in Sabbath School as a young child Red and yellow black and white all are precious in His sight Jesus loves the little children of the world Jesus loves everyone but as His followers we often struggle to follow His example In A Third Great Disappointment for the Remnant Pastor Birch presents his research findings on race relations the Millerite movement slavery the Civil War segregation the evangelical movement and much more addressing how these events have impacted and shaped the Seventh day Adventist Church He goes on to examine current race relations in the Adventist Church and the creation of ethnic conferences and warns against a final great disappointment of lost souls at Christ s second coming if we do not reconcile ourselves with each other and finish the work as one unified body With a passion for racial and ethnic reconciliation Birch offers recommendations on how to strengthen the Adventist Church through understanding and healing We are precious in God s sight but we should also be precious in each other s sight Prison and Slavery - A Surprising Comparison John Dewar Gleissner, 2010-11-17 This historically accurate and thoroughly researched book compares the modern American prison system to antebellum slavery The surprising comparison proves that antebellum slavery was not as bad as many believe while modern mass incarceration is an unrealized social and financial disaster of mammoth proportions American History Marcius Willson, 1856 Touching America's History Meredith Mason Brown, 2014-01-01 Objects that make the past feel real from a stone axe head to a piece of John Brown s scaffold includes photos History isn t just about abstract isms it s the story of real events that happened to real people In Touching America s History Meredith Mason Brown uses a collection of such objects drawing from his own family s heirlooms to summon up major developments in America s history The objects range in date from a Pequot stone axe head probably made before the Pequot War in 1637 to the western novel Dwight Eisenhower was reading while waiting for the weather to clear so the Normandy Invasion could begin to a piece of a toilet bowl found in the bombed out wreckage of Hitler s home in 1945 Among the other historically evocative items are a Kentucky rifle carried by Col John Floyd killed by Indians in 1783 a letter from George Washington explaining why he will not be able to attend the Constitutional Convention shavings from the scaffold on which John Brown was hanged a pistol belonging to Gen William Preston in whose arms Gen Albert Sidney Johnston bled to death after being shot at the Battle of Shiloh and the records of a court martial for the killing by an American officer of a Filipino captive during the Philippine War Together these objects call to mind nothing less than the birth growth and shaping of what is now America Clearly written buttressed by maps and portraits Brown s book regales while showing the objectivity and nuance of a historian Library Journal A whole new way of doing history a novel form of story telling Joseph J Ellis Pulitzer Prize winning author of Founding Brothers The Revolutionary Generation Domestic Abolitionism and Juvenile

Literature, 1830-1865 Deborah C. De Rosa, 2012-02-01 Deborah C De Rosa examines the multifaceted nature of domestic abolitionism a discourse that nineteenth century women created to voice their political sentiments when cultural imperatives demanded their silence For nineteenth century women struggling to find an abolitionist voice while maintaining the codes of gender and respectability writing children s literature was an acceptable strategy to counteract the opposition By seizing the opportunity to write abolitionist juvenile literature De Rosa argues domestic abolitionists were able to enter the public arena while simultaneously maintaining their identities as exemplary mother educators and preserving their claims to femininity Using close textual analyses of archival materials De Rosa examines the convergence of discourses about slavery gender and children in juvenile literature from 1830 to 1865 filling an important gap in our understanding of women s literary productions about race and gender as well as our understanding of nineteenth century American literature more generally
